Mighty Battleship Joins Viet Conflict

SAIGON (AP) — The New Jersey, the first American battleship to see action since the Korean War, entered the Vietnam conflict today by bombarding North Vietnamese positions in the northern half of the demilitarized zone.

The 56,000-ton vessel, three times as long as a football field, turned her 16-inch guns on enemy gun positions and bunkers seven miles north-northwest of the U.S. outpost of Con Thien.

The battleship hurled her 2,700-pound missiles into the enemy positions from its battle station in the Tonkin Gulf.

During her first mission, an aerial spotter reported that four automatic weapons sites that were firing at her aircraft were destroyed. Thirty yards of trenchline were collapsed and a road was cut in two places as the huge projectiles, which can penetrate 30 feet of reinforced concrete, slammed into the positions.

A Navy spokesman said that on her second mission of the day, the New Jersey destroyed an enemy artillery position and three bunkers and scattered supplies.

Apparently the New Jersey's chief mission will be to try to knock out heavily fortified North Vietnamese gun emplacements along the demilitarized zone that have withstood counterfire from the allies and aerial attacks.

These emplacements, some dug deep into hillsides, contain big Soviet-built artillery pieces which have been harassing allied camps along the frontier, including Con Thien, Gio Linh, and Dong Ha, headquarters of the U.S. 3rd Marine Division and a vital operational base for the DMZ.

The DMZ is 37 miles long, but most of the enemy's artillery emplacements fall within the 23-mile range of the New Jersey's nine 16-inch guns.

Within minutes the New Jersey can lay down a nine-gun broadside roughly equivalent to half the bomb load of a B52 bomber.

On her first day in action the New Jersey fired 29 rounds of 2,700-pound shells from her 16-inch guns and 45 rounds of smaller shells from her 5-inch guns into targets eight miles inland. The Navy declined to disclose how far out at sea she was at the time.

The New Jersey, whose home port is Long Beach, Calif., carries a crew of 80 officers and 1,556 enlisted men. The skipper is Capt. J. Edward Snyder Jr., 43, a native of Grand Forks, N.D.

In other war action, military spokesmen reported all was quiet today at a remote Green Beret camp to which 500 North Vietnamese troops laid siege to over the weekend.

About 500 South Vietnamese defenders, reinforced Sunday by 200 airborne commando troops, are holding the Thuong Duc Special Forces camp, and officials said 500-600 North Vietnamese troops remain in the area.

At one point the fighting was so sharp that a military spokesman reported the defenders "can throw rocks and hit the North Vietnamese—that's how close they are." The camp is 30 miles southwest of Da Nang in the foothills near the Laos border.

GOP State Meet Hears Saxbe Rap Crime, Anarchy

By DON BANDY
Associated Press Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Law and order was emphasized Saturday at the State GOP convention attended by 3,000 victory-hungry Republicans, who were warned not to take the election of Richard M. Nixon for granted.

Discipline and a respect for the law will never be relics of the past, said U.S. Senate nominee William B. Saxbe in a speech climaxing the convention. Saxbe, whose speech was carried on a statewide network, was wildly cheered.

The convention adopted a 20-point platform, including a plank calling for order and justice as the best guarantee of progress with a pledge for "fair and equal justice for all people."

The plank also reaffirmed "respect and confidence" in law enforcement officials. The platform also pledged the support of state government to maintain an orderly atmosphere on college campuses.

Saxbe lashed out at the Johnson administration and said "the monsters created by eight years of half-hearted prosecution and indulgence are the wild eyed rioters and anarchists we saw at Columbia and Chicago."

Saxbe, who earlier last week called for the replacement of FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, apparently retracted that statement. He called Hoover a "pillar of strength" and said he "alone in the administration has stood fast against the indulgence of the draft card burners and rioters."

"One of the Johnson administration's few decisions that I wholeheartedly commend was the extension of Hoover's retirement date beyond the government's mandatory retirement age," Saxbe said Saturday night.

But, he added, it's a wonder Hoover "has been able to survive the administration's attorney general, Ramsey Clark, who differed sharply with him on the problems of maintaining law and order."

"There is a proper place for dissent in an orderly society without raising the Viet Cong flag in a Chicago park, giving strength to Hanoi and jeopardizing the lives of our soldiers," Saxbe said.

There is no justification, he said, for a "spoiled minority disrupting our universities and campuses where a large majority has enrolled to learn."

Roundtown

THE mercury took a noticeable dive in the Roundtown area Sunday from a warm daytime reading of 72 to a chilly 42 degrees in the early morning hours.

And a comparison note—the temperature reading, for one year ago on Sept. 29, shows the high for the day at a cold 48 degrees and a low reading of 40.

CIRCLEVILLE'S Pumpkin Show received top billing in a feature story, "A Harvest of Festivals," in the autumn edition of Discovery, All State Motor Club Magazine. The feature article deals with fall festivals from coast to coast. By the way, the big show opens two weeks from Wednesday.

ROUND TOWN also received some national publicity in DuPont's September-October publication of Better Living. The DuPont feature concerned the company's film department and included several pictures of local personnel at work in the lab as well as the plant.

THE thieves were very obliging. They just wanted a bed to sleep on. But when Doug Palmer, State Route 138, noticed that they had taken the bed out of his house and were putting it in their car, he ordered them to return it. While Palmer called the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department on a nearby phone the two thieves politely returned the bed to the house, reassembled it and left. The duo is still being sought by the sheriff's department.

Elephant Born At Portland Zoo

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—The seventh elephant born in six years at the Portland Zoo arrived Sunday. The baby girl weighed 200 pounds and measured 36 inches from shoulder to round.

The mother is Oakland Effie. The father is Thonglaw, who has sired all the baby elephants.

Peace Corps Described As Dying

MANILA (AP)—A magazine written by U.S. Peace Corps volunteers in the Philippines describes the Peace Corps as "a dying dream."

It also says that Peace Corps training creates timidity and teaches volunteers to "pussyfoot."

An editorial in the magazine's 24-page autumn edition calls on volunteers to save the corps if it is not too late because the organization's permanent staff cannot save it.

Editor David Ruhnke, 25, of East Orange, N.J., a Dartmouth graduate, wrote that "dreams die hard, but they do die. And like it or not the Peace Corps is a dying dream."

Ruhnke contends that in its seven-year history the Peace Corps has evolved from an exciting start into stodgy, over conservatism.

The same issue produced with Peace Corps funds and volunteers' talent carried an article called "Pussyfooting Through the Peace Corps."

Written by Peter Friedland, it said the Peace Corps training program taught volunteers to avoid controversy and avoid saying what they really think.

"You learn to pussyfoot," Friedland said. "It seems most people retain that lesson—when in doubt pussyfoot."

The publication, called "Ang Boluntaryo" (the volunteers) incurred the disfavor of some U.S. Embassy officials several months ago when it commented on local politics.

Yacht Christening Glorious Affair

SHEFFIELD, England (AP)—Townfolk, officials and a Salvation Army band turned out Sunday for the christening of the 62-foot steel yacht that Joe Phillips took five years to build for a voyage around the world.

A bottle of rum was smashed across her bow and the 26-ton vessel was lowered into the water. It sank.

Greeks OK Constitution By Big Margin

ATHENS (AP)—The army-imposed regime of strongman Premier George Papadopoulos won approval of a new Greek constitution by a 94 per cent majority, and claimed today the vote represented "unreserved support of the government and the revolution."

The claim was made by the government's chief spokesman, Byron Stamatopoulos, at a post-midnight news conference.

The constitution, which becomes effective immediately, drastically reduces the power of self-exiled King Constantine and establishes a strong executive. It also sets up unprecedented measures to curb political corruption which the Papadopoulos regime contends was rampant under elected Greek governments of the past.

Adoption of a new constitution is just a first step toward return to a parliamentary system such as the one swept out of office by a bloodless army coup April 21, 1967. The next step would be general elections, but no date has been set.

Martial law and press control continue in the country, and about 2,100 leftists remain imprisoned on two Aegean Sea islands. At least 12 former deputies or politicians also are still under house arrest or in exile in rural areas.

Stamatopoulos called the huge yes vote for the constitution in the Sunday referendum "a triumph" for the government.

"It is certain," he said "that the overwhelming majority of the Greek people support the government, its efforts for peace and quiet and for the defense of the country against subversive actions."

With returns tabulated from all but 844 of 8,108 polling stations, the vote was 4,004,954 for approval of the constitution and 34,855 against or 94 per cent in favor.

Nearly 23 per cent of the registered voters did not vote, despite a law making it obligatory. However, Stamatopoulos said that 590,000 of those registered had emigrated from Greece, and that the actual percentage of absenteeism was normal for a Greek election.

LBJ Jumps Into Politics In Kentucky

COVINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Excitement still lingers at Thomas More College here, although its formal dedication has been completed. President Johnson's trip Saturday will not be soon forgotten.

The nation's chief executive made a surprise stop at the college, received an honorary degree and jumped into the presidential campaign.

Johnson did not mention any candidates by name but he lashed at those who purvey the emotions of people, especially fear, in order to exploit them. "Some are tempted to use the code words of hate" and "trade on anger and discontent," to offer rhetoric and slogans and angry accusations in the place of solutions," Johnson said.

"Some people discovered a long time ago that it is easier to scare people than to reason with them; it is easier to shout 'fire' than to fight fire; it is easier to condemn crime than to conquer crime," he continued. Johnson spoke at the academic dedication of the school, formerly known as Villa Madonna College, and religious dedication ensued Sunday when about 600 persons turned out for ceremonies and were buzzing about the President's visit.

Humphrey Rips Extremism Of Both The Left And Right

The Democratic presidential candidate, who flew here Sunday after two noisy confrontations with organized hecklers in the Pacific Northwest, made it clear that his denunciation of extremism applied not only to them but to the forces of third party candidate George C. Wallace and to Negro revolutionaries.

Humphrey, faced with speech-disrupting shouts from some 200 young antiwar activists in Seattle Saturday night, tried to quiet them by letting one of their leaders address the clearly pro-Humphrey audience. The tactic failed, and, in the end, the demonstrators were ejected from the packed Civic Center arena, seating 5,000. More than a dozen resisted police who steered them out, with a brief but violent uproar ensuing.

Having experienced a noisy walkout by about 400 protesters at a similar party rally in Portland, Ore., the night before, Humphrey came here still searching for a way to deal with the demonstrators who have been plaguing him from coast to coast.

In a speech prepared for delivery at the Mormon Tabernacle here, the vice president criticized both ends of the political spectrum.

"There are people today who made their basic appeal to the baser instincts—to fear, to racial prejudice, to escapism, to meter maid fired."

Judith Little, Circleville's meter maid, has been dismissed from the Police Department effective Tuesday it was announced today by Chief of Police Robert Temple.

Temple said the action was taken for disciplinary reasons but declined to elaborate further on his action.

the darker side of the human character. They are dangerous."

These are the words he has used repeatedly to describe the Wallace campaign, though he did not name the former Alabama governor in his text.

Then Humphrey went on to decry youths "who are preaching the same doctrine of disorder and anarchy, and using the same totalitarian tactics of the street that brought Adolf Hitler to power."

And, finally, he dealt with those "who would destroy homes, businesses and lives, in their supposed zeal to correct injustices—the Negroes who seem to believe that rioting and burning will help solve racial problems."

Sen. Joseph Tydings said Sunday an attempt to kill a filibuster against Fortas' appointment will fail when it comes up Tuesday.

"The filibuster will succeed" in keeping the Senate from voting on the nomination itself, the Maryland Democrat said.

Tydings' assessment came in a weekend of many gloomy developments for Fortas' supporters whose hopes were brightened by only a couple of items.

Albert Jenner, a Chicago attorney who heads the American Bar Association's committee that endorsed Fortas, said Sunday that "nothing relevant has come forth" requiring reconsideration of the endorsement.

He was responding to ABA President William Gossett's earlier statement that the committee acted without knowing all the facts, particularly some brought out in Senate Judiciary Committee hearings.

A new organization, the Lawyers' Committee on Supreme Court Nominations, urged the Senate Sunday to stop a filibuster and let the matter go to the floor for a vote on the merits of the appointment.

"Nothing would more poorly serve our constitutional system than for the nominations to have earned the approval of the Senate majority, but to be thwarted because the majority is denied a chance to vote," the 162-man committee's statement said.

The only effect the statements by Jenner and the committee would likely have on the Senate floor might be to shore up support among those who have been wavering in their backing of the move to have Fortas succeed retiring Earl Warren.

An Associated Press survey last week showed anti-Fortas forces had enough strength to keep a filibuster going, and that was before Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen said he had changed his mind and would vote against limiting debate.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk was in New York today for 10 days of diplomatic talks that include a meeting with Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban, on hand with a new peace plan for the Middle East.

Rusk also had on his agenda talks with Secretary-General U Thant and General Assembly President Emilio Arenales of Guatemala.

Rusk and Eban both arrived Sunday to take part in the U.N. General Assembly policy debates, and in other diplomatic conferences.

Eban told reporters that Israel is "exploring all possibilities for a lasting peace" and that he would give his ideas on the subject in a speech Oct. 8.

Diplomatic sources here said Eban told officials in Rome, Paris and London that he had a package deal for the Arabs. But (Continued on Page 2)

Saxbe Proposes Police Council

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—William B. Saxbe proposed Sunday that a National Local Police Officers Training Council be set up at Camp Perry, Ottawa County, to upgrade police training throughout the nation.

The Republican U.S. Senate candidate said he believes an agreement can be worked out with the federal government even though the property belongs to Ohio.

The proposal was made in a "Law and Justice" policy paper. Saxbe emphasized that he believes law enforcement is a local problem that can only be solved at the local level.

Check Shows Demo Campaign Needs Funds

WASHINGTON (AP) — When Richard M. Nixon was nominated for president, Republican National Chairman Ray C. Bliss proudly presented him with $1 million and a smoothly functioning campaign organization.

When Lawrence F. O'Brien was installed by Hubert H. Humphrey as both campaign manager and chairman of the Democratic National Committee, he found what he terms "a modest deficit."

In addition, the Democratic organization was in disarray. Now, with five weeks to go until election day, O'Brien says that his organization is ready. But "we have nowhere near the financial resources that we would like to have," adding that, in this regard, "I envy Ray Bliss."

"You live with what you have," O'Brien says, adding that he expects the Republicans to outstep the Democrats by 4- or 5-to-1.

Nixon relies on the more traditional pattern of a personal organization, operating out of New York and headed by John Mitchell.

Mitchell and Bliss meet each week to coordinate. But in over-all charge is the candidate himself.

For the Democrats, O'Brien functions as both head of the party and of Humphrey's own drive.

Neither O'Brien nor Bliss would estimate in interviews what the two parties plan to spend on the presidential and congressional races.

A Republican source said, however, his party will spend at least $20 million.

One result of the money situation is that the GOP advertising campaign is well ahead.

Sen. Joseph Tydings said Sunday an attempt to kill a filibuster against Fortas' appointment will fail when it comes up Tuesday.

"The filibuster will succeed" in keeping the Senate from voting on the nomination itself, the Maryland Democrat said.

Tydings' assessment came in a weekend of many gloomy developments for Fortas' supporters whose hopes were brightened by only a couple of items.

Albert Jenner, a Chicago attorney who heads the American Bar Association's committee that endorsed Fortas, said Sunday that "nothing relevant has come forth" requiring reconsideration of the endorsement.

He was responding to ABA President William Gossett's earlier statement that the committee acted without knowing all the facts, particularly some brought out in Senate Judiciary Committee hearings.

A new organization, the Lawyers' Committee on Supreme Court Nominations, urged the Senate Sunday to stop a filibuster and let the matter go to the floor for a vote on the merits of the appointment.

"Nothing would more poorly serve our constitutional system than for the nominations to have earned the approval of the Senate majority, but to be thwarted because the majority is denied a chance to vote," the 162-man committee's statement said.

The only effect the statements by Jenner and the committee would likely have on the Senate floor might be to shore up support among those who have been wavering in their backing of the move to have Fortas succeed retiring Earl Warren.

An Associated Press survey last week showed anti-Fortas forces had enough strength to keep a filibuster going, and that was before Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen said he had changed his mind and would vote against limiting debate.

Israelis Plan To Propose New Steps

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk was in New York today for 10 days of diplomatic talks that include a meeting with Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban, on hand with a new peace plan for the Middle East.

Rusk also had on his agenda talks with Secretary-General U Thant and General Assembly President Emilio Arenales of Guatemala.

Rusk and Eban both arrived Sunday to take part in the U.N. General Assembly policy debates, and in other diplomatic conferences.

Eban told reporters that Israel is "exploring all possibilities for a lasting peace" and that he would give his ideas on the subject in a speech Oct. 8.

Diplomatic sources here said Eban told officials in Rome, Paris and London that he had a package deal for the Arabs. But (Continued on Page 2)

Saxbe Proposes Police Council

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—William B. Saxbe proposed Sunday that a National Local Police Officers Training Council be set up at Camp Perry, Ohio, to upgrade police training throughout the nation.

The Republican U.S. Senate candidate said he believes an agreement can be worked out with the federal government even though the property belongs to Ohio.

The proposal was made in a "Law and Justice" policy paper.

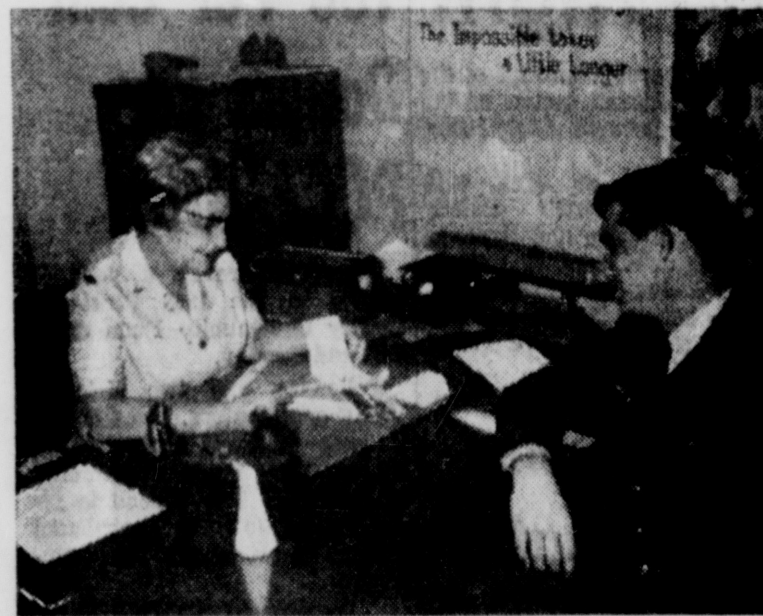

Saxbe emphasized that he believes law enforcement is a local problem that can only be solved at the local level.

STARVATION IN BIAFRA — This lad may have already died from kwashiorkor, a killing protein-deficiency disease. Six thousand die each day from malnutrition in Biafra, now completely land-locked. Church World Service has provided a half-million dollars' worth of aid within the past two months. Most of the high protein food was made available through CROP, the CWS community hunger appeal.

Many Community Services Are Offered By Red Cross

FAMILY SERVICE OFFERED — Mrs. Roloff Wolford, executive secretary of the local Red Cross Chapter, explains the Service to Military Families program to Sgt. Michael Temple (above). Sgt. Temple is to report for overseas duty in Thailand in mid-November.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Following is one in a series of articles on the participating agencies of the 1968 Community Fund Drive. Goal this year has been set at $55,000. Each of the articles will be written by a volunteer of the agency.

During 1967-1968 the Pickaway County Chapter of the American Red Cross served Pickaway County residents by providing many community services as well as emergency assistance to individuals and families.

Within the organization are included eight services:

Disaster Service — Every chapter must provide emergency and rehabilitation assistance in time of disaster. The most recent local experience occurred in May and June, 1968, when many local families suffered flood loss. Shelter, food and clothing were provided by the chapter during the emergency. In the rehabilitation period, 33 families received assistance in various ways. Various areas of the county were affected: Kingston Pike, Atlanta, Gold Cliff Park, Ashville, Laurelvill, area as well as several areas of Circleville. Included were food supplies, clothing, household furnishings, and building repairs. Help is provided in disaster according to need, not loss and is always a gift, never a loan. Total cost of the flood in Pickaway County was $5,500 which was paid by the National Organization, as is the case in all larger disasters. Only family fires and small local problems are included in the local chapter budget. It is the responsibility of the Red Cross to coordinate local community effort and resources in all times of disaster.

Service to Military Families — The chapter gives assistance to all families of active servicemen living within Pickaway County. This included emergency communications, financial assistance and counseling in family problems.

Assistance is also provided veterans and others in certain cases. A total of 225 families have received this help during the past year.

First Aid and Water Safety — Free lessons in first aid and swimming are provided the community each year. Last year 55 adults and young people received first aid instruction. During this summer more than 900 persons have participated in the water safety program in Circleville and Ashville.

Blood Program — Through participation in the Central Ohio Red Cross Blood Center, the local chapter is responsible for providing total blood needs of all residents of Pickaway County and their immediate family members, no matter where they are hospitalized. During 1967 more than 800 units of blood and blood fractions were received (at no cost for the blood itself) by patients from this county. This represents a value in dollars and cents of more than $20,000 to the community.

Nursing Service — Classes in home nursing are available to the general public and nursing home personnel. A class in mother and baby care for expectant parents was conducted this year and another is planned for this fall. Registered and practical nurses staff the bloodmobile at each visit. A First Aid Station at the county fair is staffed each year by the nurses.

Volunteer Services — The chapter volunteers, the chapter car and house provide valuable assistance to the entire community each year. About 50 uniformed adult volunteers and 75 volunteers are regularly rendering service to the community and other agencies. Berger Hospital, VA Hospital, nursing homes, clinics, health departments, welfare departments, community action etc.

The American Red Cross will receive $22,000 of the Community Fund goal of $55,000.

Israelis Plan

Other sources said they doubted reports that the Israeli plan would return Sinai to Egypt and most of the West Bank of the Jordan River to Jordan.

For the second time in three days, Eban rejected a Soviet peace plan reported to call for Israeli withdrawal to pre-1967 boundaries in return for a U.N. presence there, an Arab declaration of nonbelligerence and a Big Four guarantee against new hostilities.

Washington officials said Wednesday that the Soviet Union had presented such a plan to the United States. Eban said it was not new, could not be called a peace plan and in any case should have been presented directly to the countries concerned. He also objected that it did not call for "recognized boundaries" for Israel.

Eban will present the new Israeli plan as a new round of talks aimed at settling the Arab-Israeli war of June 1967 gets under way.

3 Injured, Driver Cited In Accident

Three local people were injured and the driver was cited on four traffic charges as the result of a one-car accident on Justus O'Neill Road Sunday.

Taken to Berger Hospital for emergency treatment of injuries were the driver of the car, Charles Johnson, 20, Route 1, Williamsport, lacerated chin and arm; James Jester, 15, Williamsport, admitted to the hospital with a lacerated head; and Roy James, 20, Williamsport, broken teeth.

Johnson told Pickaway County Sheriff's Deputy Bill Duntz that he was southbound on O'Neill Road approximately one mile north of Dawson-Yankee town Road about 3:30 a.m. Sunday when he lost control of his car while rounding a curve in the gravel road.

Johnson was cited for reckless operation, driving without a license, failure to transfer title of ownership and giving false information to a law officer.

He entered a plea of not guilty to the reckless operation charge and pleas of guilty to the other charges before Municipal Court Judge Sterling Lamb Monday.

A fine of $100 plus costs was imposed for driving without a license, $50 lisp costs for reckless operation, $50 plus costs for giving out false information and $15 plus costs for failing to transfer ownership of his car.

Go-Cart Stolen
A go-cart frame valued at $20 was stolen from the porch of Bill Young, Tarleton, sometime last week, according to a complaint filed by Young with the sheriff's department.

Young said that he had left the frame on his front porch last week and that when he returned home Friday the frame was missing. Neighbors reported that they had not seen any strangers around the location.

The incident is still under investigation.

Israelis Plan

the sources said they knew none of the details.

Other sources said they doubted reports that the Israeli plan would return Sinai to Egypt and most of the West Bank of the Jordan River to Jordan.

For the second time in three days, Eban rejected a Soviet peace plan reported to call for Israeli withdrawal to pre-1967 boundaries in return for a U.N. presence there, an Arab declaration of nonbelligerence and a Big Four guarantee against new hostilities.

Washington officials said Wednesday that the Soviet Union had presented such a plan to the United States. Eban said it was not new, could not be called a peace plan and in any case should have been presented directly to the countries concerned. He also objected that it did not call for "recognized boundaries" for Israel.

Eban will present the new Israeli plan as a new round of talks aimed at settling the Arab-Israeli war of June 1967 gets under way.

3 Injured, Driver Cited In Accident

Three local people were injured and the driver was cited on four traffic charges as the result of a one-car accident on Justus O'Neill Road Sunday.

Taken to Berger Hospital for emergency treatment of injuries were the driver of the car, Charles Johnson, 20, Route 1, Williamsport, lacerated chin and arm; James Jester, 15, Williamsport, admitted to the hospital with a lacerated head; and Roy James, 20, Williamsport, broken teeth.

Johnson told Pickaway County Sheriff's Deputy Bill Dountz that he was southbound on O'Neill Road approximately one mile north of Dawson-Yankee town Road about 3:30 a.m. Sunday when he lost control of his car while rounding a curve in the gravel road.

Johnson was cited for reckless operation, driving without a license, failure to transfer title of ownership and giving false information to a law officer.

He entered a plea of not guilty to the reckless operation charge and pleas of guilty to the other charges before Municipal Court Judge Sterling Lamb Monday.

A fine of $100 plus costs was imposed for driving without a license, $50 lisp costs for reckless operation, $50 plus costs for giving out false information and $15 plus costs for failing to transfer ownership of his car.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Boyfriend Gets Lesson In Courtesy

DEAR ABBY: Last evening my daughter brought her boyfriend over to visit. I was pouring coffee, so I asked the young man if he cared for a cup. He just stared at me and didn't say a word. When he finally spoke, it was to say that he never realized before that I was cross-eyed, and he didn't answer my question because he didn't know I was talking to him!

I said to him, "Young man, I am not only cross-eyed, I am extremely sensitive about it, but most people spare me embarrassment by not mentioning it, having learned from their mothers when very young that such remarks are rude and unkind."

Do you think I was justified in answering him that way? Or should I apologize to him?

WONDERING

DEAR WONDERING: You owe the boorish fellow no apology. He should have thanked YOU for the lesson.

DEAR ABBY: I am a widow who's been seeing a very eligible man for nearly two years. I know he thinks a lot of me because I am the only woman he goes with.

During our more intimate moments I have told him I "loved" him, but he has never said "I love you" to me. He has said "I adore you...I think the world of you...you're the greatest," but he has yet to say, "I love you." Abby, these are the words a woman wants to hear.

We're not kids. I am 46 and he is 51. I've quit saying, "I love you" to him because I feel foolish when he doesn't reciprocate. (He says, "actions speak louder than words.")

I'd like to marry this man, Abby. What's wrong with him, and what do you advise me to do?

LOVES HIM

DEAR LOVES: Actions do speak louder than words. And your friend acts like a man who doesn't want to get involved. The words, "I love you" are a commitment, usually followed by, "will you marry me?" He is shrewdly avoiding a more permanent relationship with you. Lose him, Lady. He'll

Plenty of Parties

SANTA FE, N. M. (AP) — Voters in New Mexico in the 1968 general election may have the choice of seven presidential candidates on the ballot.

These would include the Democratic and Republican parties' candidates and those of five minor parties.

In New Mexico, a minor party is one whose candidate for governor received less than 15 per cent of the total vote cast at the preceding general election.

The Prohibition and Socialist Labor parties have had candidates on New Mexico's general election ballots for many years.

Other minor parties whose presidential candidates may appear on the ballot include American Independent, Universal, and Peace and Freedom.

ATWATER PTA

The Executive Board of the Atwater PTA met recently in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sward, co-chairman for 1968-69.

The board decided to meet regularly in an effort to establish continuity in the PTA program and to consider promptly more immediate problems as they arise.

In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Sward, co-chairmen, the board consists of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Karickhoff, first vice presidents in charge of program; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne K. Smith, 2nd vice presidents; Mr. and Mrs. Art Cross, ways and means committee chairman; Mrs. David T. Hoffman, secretary; and Richard Scott, treasurer. Mrs. Mary Lamb, Atwater principal, represented the school and teachers at the meeting.

Karickhoff announced that the PTA schedule for 1968-69 has been printed and distributed for the parents' use. PTA programs are scheduled for the first Thursday in October, November, and March. The annual Christmas musical will take place on December 19. April 25 has been designated Family Fun Nite. Baby sitting services will be available at the school for all meetings with the exception of Fun Nite.

Mrs. Karickhoff reported that the school library which is administered by the PTA and staffed by mothers of Atwater students, is operating on a daily basis. Mrs. James McDaniel will continue to head the library operation. A vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Dale Edwards who assisted the PTA in the reorganization of the library.

A safety committee has been established to investigate the traffic conditions on routes which Atwater students travel to and from school. An individual family survey is underway to determine these routes and to encourage personal suggestions for remedying the existing problems. Sward, Karickhoff, and Scott are serving on this committee with David T. Hoffman, chairman.

A list of items needed by the school was drawn up and will be turned over to Mrs. Robert McKelvey, projects chairman, for consideration by the PTA. The Board authorized immediate purchase of a large folding table and made a financial contribution to the Scholarship Fund administered by the Pickaway Co. Child Welfare Board.

In addition to Mrs. McKelvey's position, the following committee chairmen were announced: Mrs. Robert Phillips, health; Mrs. Charles Resler, hospitality; Mrs. Paul Powers, membership; Mrs. Ronald Gaines, room mothers; Mrs. David T. Hoffman, publicity; Mrs. Nicholas Apostolakis, Pumpkin Show; Mrs. Howard Judd, baby-sitting services.

Troops To Europe

With Washington announcing the upcoming dispatch of 20,000 to 40,000 additional troops to Europe "for maneuvers" — sooner than had been planned — and many Russian divisions camped on the Czech-West German border, the international waters look muddier than ever.

Of course, the State Department "isn't worried" etc. But perhaps the American people should be.

If Polarizing Continues

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

After Chicago, Hubert Humphrey was strongly urged to make "racism" the big issue of the campaign. Some of our junior grade Machiavellis reminded Hubert of John F. Kennedy's 1960 strategy in the West Virginia primary, urging him to take a leaf out of the Kennedy book. The Machiavellis recalled that before the vote Humphrey was accorded a fair chance of winning in West Virginia. But the Kennedy forces raised the religious issue in reverse; they went into white Anglo-Saxon Protestant mountain coves and valleys and challenged the West Virginia natives with the question, "Are you prejudiced?" Since a majority of the West Virginians would not admit to a religious bias, they had to answer "no." Thus J. F. Kennedy won — and Hubert was through for the year.

The strategy, of course, raised a phony specter. The attempt to make the 1960 primary a referendum on religious prejudice would have only made sense on the supposition that Humphrey was anti-Catholic. But if one thing is clear about Humphrey, he is a man with no religious prejudice whatsoever. The memory of what was done to him in West Virginia must still rankle in Humphrey's mind, for he has not been able to go all out in following the 1968 version of the 1960 West Virginia Kennedy line in the present campaign against Richard Nixon. Part of the Humphrey campaign technique is to suggest that Nixon is not sufficiently active in discouraging racial bigots. But Humphrey is careful to preface his soft impeachment of the Republican campaign by saying, in effect, that "of course Richard Nixon is not himself a racist."

It is good that Humphrey has not entirely accepted the strategy recommendations of his junior grade Machiavellis. For to the extent that the campaign becomes more polarized than it is, the only one to benefit from it will be George Wallace. That is the way things are running this year. The effort to make Richard Nixon seem a "racist" must fall flat on its face, for there is nothing in his past, and nothing in his position papers or speeches, to substantiate such an absurd proposition. But merely to force the racist issue into the foreground adds to the polarizing psychology that is ruining our nation. We have already seen what the Yippie movement has done. The New Left generalissimo — Tom Hayden and Jerry Rubin — have been counseling a "the worse the better" strategy. Their aim at Chicago was to make the Democratic nomination worthless to Humphrey. The New Left theory is that a Nixon victory is preferable to a Humphrey victory because it will bring anarchy that much closer. Nixon, so the New Leftists think, will be unable to govern.

If we do get anarchy, however, it will not lead to rule by the New Left. To run a country requires something more than a will to bait cops or to explode stink bombs in hotel lobbies. Can anyone imagine a Tom Hayden or a Jerry Rubin running a chicken coop, much less the America of General Electric and IBM? Would people save and invest in an industry subject to their whims?

If the New Left were ever to become sufficiently threatening to take over, we would surely have a Rightist reaction that would make Italy's experience in the early Nineteen Twenties seem like child's play.

Washburn's Goal

By BOB THOMAS

AP Television-Movie Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — To Charlie Washburn's family and friends in Memphis, Tenn., it seemed like the impossible dream: He wanted to be a director of television and films.

Why did it seem so impossible? Because at the time Charlie Washburn was captured by that dream, there were no Negro directors in TV and movies. And Charlie is a Negro.

"But I never lost sight of my goal, no matter what the odds were against me," he says. "I knew some day I would make it — and I will."

Washburn has made a start. He is now second assistant director on the television series "Star Trek"; one of three Negro assistant directors in the studios. His job allows him to study a number of directors as they work on the space-age series, and he notes their techniques for future use.

He came to the film industry through a new apprentice program aimed at infusing new blood to the creative force of Hollywood. So far 29 have graduated from the program to become assistant directors, 22 are in training and about 15 will enter a new class in the near future.

Charlie Washburn came into the program through a series of lucky circumstances. Born 30 years ago in Memphis, the son of a car salesman, he grew up in a segregated society. He attended all-Negro schools and the nearly all-Negro Kentucky State College, graduating with a bachelor of science in business administration.

He expected to go to work for a Negro insurance company, but during a trip to visit a college professor in Milwaukee, he decided to stay in the North and return to school. After a semester at the University of Wisconsin, he entered a two-year telecasting course at the Milwaukee Institute of Technology.

"That's when I fell in love with directing," he recalls. "The school offers practical training at the educational channel for Milwaukee, and the work for actually putting shows on the air stimulated me enormously. I knew there was one thing I wanted to do in life, and that was to direct."

Washburn went on to teach telecasting at the University of Syracuse while he earned his master's degree. Then he worked for two years for the television, radio and film commission of the Methodist Church with headquarters in Nashville, Tenn. He produced a radio show called "The Word and Music" and traveled throughout the country to instruct ministers on how to use broadcasting.

In September 1965, Washburn heard through a writer friend in Hollywood about the directors guild apprentice program. He fired off a letter of application. He was invited to come to Hollywood twice, for an eight-hour written examination conducted by the University of Southern California, then for an interview before directors, producers and executives of the film industry.

In July 1966, Washburn was notified that he had been accepted for the Directors Guild Producers training plan. He quit his job and came to Hollywood.

When he sat down, several colleagues rushed over to congratulate him, one going so far as to say, "Brother, you sure told it to 'em today! You made it crystal clear which way you stood on every controversial question plaguing this body."

Speaking Of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

What is meant by the medical specialty of rehabilitation?

Rehabilitation means to restore an individual to his former constructive capacity and to return a sick patient to health with little or no limitations. This has always been the ultimate aim of all good medicine and surgery.

Now there is a very definite specialty in the art and science of rehabilitation. The one single goal is to return the sick and the injured to the best possible physical and emotional state. In an effort to return them to society and to complete independence and dignity, specialists in this gratifying field of medicine have devised the most remarkable types of apparatus to make people self-sufficient in the home and in their occupation.

Dr. Howard Rusk of the Institute of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation is identified with this specialty and has trained thousands of doctors who now are placed in key positions in major hospitals all over the world. Although his name has this identification there are many others who, with dedication, have furthered this most important contribution to the social and medical rejuvenation of patients.

Patients who have suffered heart attacks, strokes, those born with crippling deformities and the many handicapped by accidents are no longer condemned to live the rest of their lives as emotional and physical invalids.

What is the disease PKU that occurs in newborn children?

There are a number of metabolic diseases that occur in newborn infants. PKU, the abbreviation for phenylketonuria, is only one of them. Another is known as galactosemia. A third is described as the maple syrup urine disease.

By metabolism we mean all the chemical and physical changes that occur within the organs of the body. PKU is a sad, congenital disease due to the absence of a special enzyme. This, unfortunately, results in the accumulation of abnormal quantities of toxic substances in the brain and when undiscovered, may lead to some type of mental retardation.

When once it was learned that this condition can be reversed there was concentrated effort to

20 YEARS AGO

John Goeller offered Circleville board of education an option on a five-acre plot of ground on Atwater Ave. for its proposed northward elementary school building.

GE's $2.5 million Circleville plant was considered officially opened as the nine key men responsible for its operation were placed on a fulltime basis here.

One of Circleville's remaining landmarks was erased with completion of the repaving of Court St. from the south corporation limit to Pleasant St. The former brick surface at Court and Main St. showed, in light colored bricks, where the ancient blockhouse once stood when Circleville was built in a circle.

Hildeburn Martin resigned his position as resident engineer at the municipal water plant.

For the second time in two years Walnut Twp. voters faced a $225,000 bond issue. It had been defeated the previous November.

Patty Hamman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Royal Hamman of Route 2, Williamsport, won first place honors in a tailored dress review for 4-H clubs at the Ohio State Fair.

A two-way radio system for the police department was approved by city council.

Pickaway County's Child Welfare Board passed a resolution calling on the county commissioners for funds to retain a Columbus consultant on welfare procedure and architecture to determine actual needs at the children's home.

Circleville city schools recorded an enrollment of 1,681 students.

Lloyd Jones Jr., 151 W. Main St., sailed to Switzerland where he was to study at the University of Zurich for the winter.

A total of 3,561 students were enrolled in Pickaway County schools.

A $25,000 blaze razed three buildings on the John H. Dunlap farm west of Circleville.

Miss Luella Wilson, daughter of Mrs. Effie Wilson, 1112 S. Washington St., was the first Circleville resident to be hired by the new Circleville General Electric Plant. An anticipated 500 local persons were to be placed on the payroll at the plant.

A contender for the title of Circleville's "oldest remaining building" — the old wooden structure on E. Franklin St. between Pickaway and Washington Sts. — was razed. It was first known as Goeller's broom shop and later housed the R. D. Good blacksmith shop.

Pickaway County held its first fair in 114 years.

30 Horses Are Killed In Blaze

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Fire authorities in suburban North Randall are seeking the cause of a fire that raged through two barns at Thistle-down Race Track early Sunday, killing 30 thoroughbred horses and two ponies.

A groom, Ronald Harris, 21, who was sleeping in Barn No. 9, said he was awakened by the heat and "saw a ball of fire in the back room."

Harris started leading horses out of the barn, and two other grooms who saw the flames from a nearby diner rushed to help.

One problem in getting the horses out, said horse owner Chuck Gerloch, was that "they're just like babies. When something makes them panic, they want to stay in their stalls. You have to club them to get them out."

Track Manager Harry R. Bell estimated damage to barns and equipment at $185,000. He declined to estimate the value of the dead horses.

If Polarizing Continues

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

After Chicago, Hubert Humphrey was strongly urged to make "racism" the big issue of the campaign. Some of our junior grade Machiavellis reminded Hubert of John F. Kennedy's 1960 strategy in the West Virginia primary, urging him to take a leaf out of the Kennedy book. The Machiavellis recalled that before the vote Humphrey was accorded a fair chance of winning in West Virginia. But the Kennedy forces raised the religious issue in reverse; they went into white Anglo-Saxon Protestant mountain caves and valleys and challenged the West Virginia natives with the question, "Are you prejudiced?" Since a majority of the West Virginians would not admit to a religious bias, they had to answer "no." Thus J. F. Kennedy won — and Hubert was through for the year.

The strategy, of course, raised a phony specter. The attempt to make the 1960 primary a referendum on religious prejudice would have only made sense on the supposition that Humphrey was anti-Catholic. But if one thing is clear about Humphrey, he is a man with no religious prejudice whatsoever. The memory of what was done to him in West Virginia must still rankle in Humphrey's mind, for he has not been able to go all out in following the 1968 version of the 1960 West Virginia Kennedy line in the present campaign against Richard Nixon. Part of the Humphrey campaign technique is to suggest that Nixon is not sufficiently active in discouraging racial bigots. But Humphrey is careful to preface his soft impeachment of the Republican campaign by saying, in effect, that "of course Richard Nixon is not himself a racist."

It is good that Humphrey has not entirely accepted the strategy recommendations of his junior grade Machiavellis. For to the extent that the campaign becomes more polarized than it is, the only one to benefit from it will be George Wallace. That is the way things are running this year. The effort to make Richard Nixon seem a "racist" must fall flat on its face, for there is nothing in his past, and nothing in his position papers or speeches, to substantiate such an absurd proposition. But merely to force the racist issue into the foreground adds to the polarizing psychology that is ruining our nation.

We have already seen what the Yippie movement has done. The New Left generalissimo — Tom Hayden and Jerry Rubin — have been counselling a "the worse the better" strategy. Their aim at Chicago was to make the Democratic nomination worthless to Humphrey. The New Left theory is that a Nixon victory is preferable to a Humphrey victory because it will bring anarchy that much closer. Nixon, so the New Leftists think, will be unable to govern.

If we do get anarchy, however, it will not lead to rule by the New Left. To run a country requires something more than a will to bait cops or to explode stink bombs in hotel lobbies. Can anyone imagine — Tom Hayden or a Jerry Rubin running a chicken coop, much less the America of General Electric and IBM? Would people save and invest in an industry subject to their whims?

If the New Left were ever to become sufficiently threatening to take over, we would surely have a Rightist reaction that would make Italy's experience in the early Nineteen Twenties seem like child's play by comparison. There are some similarities between the Italy of 1920 and the America of 1968. Italy had been on the winning side in World War I. But the victory seemed as empty to Italians as our present world leadership seems to our young people now. The well-defined Italian anarcho-syndicalist movement vied with the Communists to channel the post-World War I dissatisfaction into extreme radical channels. The anarchists seized some factories, and did well enough until they ran out of raw materials. But the net effect of it all was to scare the daylight out of the silent majority. Benito Mussolini, talking about law and order, then staged his march on Rome. It is the Mussolini-type Fascism of the Twenties, not the Nazi kind that aimed at taking over the world, that the polarizing process goes to extremes.

The polarizing will hardly be completed in time to defeat Richard Nixon in November. But if it continues, it could easily provoke some form of Fascism by 1972. Let a few more universities be "liberated," a few more cities be wrecked — and watch the "law and order" drift to the radical right become a major political force.

Washburn's Goal

By BOB THOMAS

AP Television-Movie Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — To Charlie Washburn's family and friends in Memphis, Tenn., it seemed like the impossible dream: He wanted to be a director of television and films.

Why did it seem so impossible? Because at the time Charlie Washburn was captured by that dream, there were no Negro directors in TV and movies. And Charlie is a Negro.

"But I never lost sight of my goal, no matter what the odds were against me," he says. "I knew some day I would make it — and I will."

Washburn has made a start. He is now second assistant director on the television series "Star Trek"; one of three Negro assistant directors in the studio. His job allows him to study a number of directors as they work on the space-age series, and he notes their techniques for future use.

He came to the film industry through a new apprentice program aimed at infusing new blood to the creative force of Hollywood. So far 29 have graduated from the program to become assistant directors, 22 are in training and about 15 will enter a new class in the near future.

Charlie Washburn came into the program through a series of lucky circumstances. Born 30 years ago in Memphis, the son of a car salesman, he grew up in a segregated society. He attended all-Negro schools and the nearly all-Negro Kentucky State College, graduating with a bachelor of science in business administration.

He expected to go to work for a Negro insurance company, but during a trip to visit a college professor in Milwaukee, he decided to stay in the North and return to school. After a semester at the University of Wisconsin, he entered a two-year telecasting course at the Milwaukee Institute of Technology.

"That's when I fell in love with directing," he recalls. "The school offers practical training at the educational channel for Milwaukee, and the work for actually putting shows on the air stimulated me enormously. I knew there was one thing I wanted to do in life, and that was to direct."

Washburn went on to teach telecasting at the University of Syracuse while he earned his master's degree. Then he worked for two years for the television, radio and film commission of the Methodist Church with headquarters in Nashville, Tenn. He produced a radio show called "The Word-and Music" and traveled throughout the country to instruct ministers on how to use broadcasting.

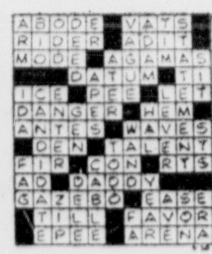

In September 1965, Washburn heard through a writer friend in Hollywood about the directors guild apprentice program. He fired off a letter of application. He was invited to come to Hollywood twice, for an eight-hour written examination conducted by the University of Southern California, then for an interview before directors, producers and executives of the film industry.

In July 1966, Washburn was notified that he had been accepted for the Directors Guild Producers training plan. He quit his job and came to Hollywood.

GE's $2.5 million Circleville plant was considered officially opened as the nine key men responsible for its operation were placed on a fulltime basis here.

One of Circleville's remaining landmarks was erased with completion of the repaving of Court St. from the south corporation limit to Pleasant St. The former brick surface at Court and Main St. showed, in light colored bricks, where the ancient blockhouse once stood when Circleville was built in a circle.

Circleville city schools recorded an enrollment of 1,681 students.

Lloyd Jones Jr., 151 W. Main St., sailed to Switzerland where he was to study at the University of Zurich for the winter.

A total of 3,561 students were enrolled in Pickaway County schools.

A $25,000 blaze razed three buildings on the John H. Dunlap farm west of Circleville.

Miss Luella Wilson, daughter of Mrs. Effie Wilson, 1112 S. Washington St., was the first Circleville resident to be hired by the new Circleville General Electric Plant. An anticipated 500 local persons were to be placed on the payroll at the plant.

A contender for the title of Circleville's "oldest remaining building" — the old wooden structure on E. Franklin St. between Pickaway and Washington Sts. — was razed. It was first known as Goeller's broom shop and later housed the R. D. Good blacksmith shop.

Pickaway County held its first fair in 114 years.

Arsonists Hit Navy-Marine Training Center

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Arsonists who tried to destroy the Naval and Marine Corps training center in Eugene caused $106,000 damage Sunday.

No one was hurt, but at least three explosions about 1 a.m. wrecked a 12-ton crane with a 35-foot boom, two large bulldozers, four dump trucks and a truck used to carry personnel.

Two unignited gasoline bombs were found in the main building. Investigators said the arsonists hooked powder fuses to plastic sandwich bags filled with gasoline. These devices were placed near diesel fuel and gasoline that was spread in a hallway of one wing of the main building.

The investigators found the same type of bombs attached to a one-story storage garage behind the main building.

The equipment was parked in a compound surrounded by an eight-foot wire fence.

Reach Plan To End N.Y. School Strike

NEW YORK (AP) — Teachers and the Board of Education have agreed on a plan to end a three-week strike of the city's public schools and get 1.1 million pupils back in their classrooms.

The agreement was announced Sunday afternoon after a 16 hour negotiating session at Mayor John V. Lindsay's residence. It was approved by the leadership of the 55,000-member AFL-CIO United Federation of Teachers. A rank-and-file vote Sunday night was 5,828 in favor of calling off the walkout and 592 against.

Lindsay said the written agreement "should allow our city schools to open" today.

The plan calls for sending 110 teachers, opposed by the governing board of Brooklyn's Ocean Hill-Brownsville schools, back to their classes in the predominantly Negro and Puerto Rican district. It also provides for observers named by the Board of Education and the predominantly white UFT to be stationed in the district's eight schools to see that the teachers are not molested or threatened.

Uniformed and plainclothes policemen also were to be on hand.

Rhody McCoy, administrator of the experimental district, was asked early today if he would allow observers in the district's schools. He replied, "How would I stop them?" and added: "We don't want them, we don't need them."

Discord Marks Hippie Dialogue

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — The young people and the professor disagree about the hippies.

He says they're dirty, shiftless spongers. The young folks defend them as needlers of American society.

"They're practitioners of the worst sort of hypocrisy," said the Rev. Dr. Robert E. Fitch of San Francisco, who called them lazy, immature, irresponsible, immoral and smelly.

"I question this hard name-calling," said Peggy Liggett, a student at Texas Christian University. "Rather than name-calling, we ought to try to rectify conditions in society that cause them to withdraw from it."

The youngsters and Dr. Fitch, who teaches Christian ethics at the Pacific School of Religion, tangled on the subject Sunday night at the General Assembly of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ).

"The hippies are trying to tell us something about the society we're living in," said Frederick W. Smith, of Minneapolis, chairman of the youth panel. "In a sense they're a product of society. We need to ask what they're saying about a society on which they've turned their backs."

Commented Dr. Fitch: "They're trying to tell us they don't want to grow up and be responsible adults."

About 10,000 church people in Kansas City's Municipal Auditorium applauded points scored by the contenders, most often for Dr. Fitch's views.

"It looks as if there's a majority over the age of 30 in this audience," observed Smith.

"Don't talk to me about being over 30," said Dr. Fitch. "My grandchildren would consider this youth panel a bunch of old men and women, and I communicate with them."

Negro delegates formed a black caucus Sunday night to plan strategies on proposals of particular concern to Negroes at the seven-day convention which runs through Wednesday.

The group is led by the Rev. Dr. Raymond E. Brown, of Reidsville, N.C. The denomination of about 1.4 million and 6,000 congregations has about 90,000 Negro members in 500 of the congregations.

Delegates voted Saturday to approve a new charter to make their loose federation of churches a representative organized denomination. The new church is to be formally constituted Tuesday night.

The on-stage argument came after Dr. Fitch assailed hippies as phonies who regard themselves as nonconformists but who are such conformists in dress, speech, conduct and odor that they remind one of a "flock of sheep."

He said hippy colonies spur increases in narcotics traffic, rape, venereal disease, petty theft and the accumulation of garbage, filth, vermin.

Karl L. Munson of Maywood, Ill., a student at Hiram, Ohio, College, said similar conditions existed around Jesus. "Everywhere Jesus went, lepers, beggars, the poor and prostitutes congregated," he said, suggesting Dr. Fitch "confused causes for effects" in regard to hippies.

"I balk at your analogy with Jesus," the professor said. "I don't think you believe it yourself."

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Walk into Edith Stern's trigonometry class for freshmen at Michigan State University, you would swear the teacher isn't a day over 17.

She isn't. She's only 16. Edith is a mathematics phenomenon from Florida who was exposed to 24-hour-a-day classical music shortly after birth; was reading—and drawing books from the public library—at 2½; has an IQ of 154 to 201, depending on the test, and worries about her weight.

She's lost 20 pounds since starting her graduate work at Michigan State, but would like to lose more, "so I can find inexpensive dresses that aren't so old-looking."

"I always was a fat little thing," she added.

Edith decided to come to MSU after graduation from Florida Atlantic University because she learned the school had an excellent reputation in mathematics and because MSU offered her a graduate assistantship to help pay costs. Her father is unable to work because of illness, and her mother is a sales clerk in a bakery.

There are two other young geniuses at Michigan State.

Michael Grost, 14, son of a Lansing couple, is completing his senior year this semester and will join Edith in the MSU graduate college studying mathematics.

Norman Plantnik, 16, a graduate student in zoology, is teaching general biology to sophomores. He is a graduate of Concord College in Athens, W. Va.

The classical music as an infant was the beginning of years of disciplined work for Edith guided by her father, Aaron, who said he wanted to create a genius in his daughter.

Public school officials fought her father's plans to take Edith from the ninth grade into Miami-Dade Junior College. They lost in court.

Berger Hospital General Guild Forum Is Held

The Berger Hospital General Guild Forum was held Thursday in the guild room of the hospital with 22 guilds represented.

Mrs. Randolph Clark, president, introduced the new officers: first vice president, Mrs. Robert McKelvey; second vice president, Mrs. Roger Bennington; recording secretary, Mrs. Gerald Doering; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Carl Russell; treasurer, Mrs. Michael Bruno. Serving also on the executive board are members at large, Mrs. William Bills and Mrs. Charles Brackett, immediate past president, Mrs. Manuel Sanguly; president of Guild 1, Mrs. William Myers; immediate past presidents of Guild 1, Mrs. Harold Brown and Mrs. Robert G. Smith; life member, Mrs. Edwin Shane, and Gift Shop Guild Chairman, Mrs. L. D. Varble.

Mrs. James Stambaugh, Berger Hospital Administrator, spoke briefly to the members, and thanked them for their contributions to the hospital.

Mrs. L. D. Varble announced the Christmas Tea will be held November 14, beginning at 2 p.m. at the hospital. Mrs. Terry Roof, bazaar chairman, announced the Christmas Bazaar will be Nov. 22 from 1 to 8 p.m. at the Eagles Lodge. She stated that Guild 45 will be in charge of the Money Tree. Mrs. Robert McKelvey will be the publicity chairman, and Guilds 1 and 2 will be in charge of the food booth. Patrons of the bazaar may purchase coffee and dessert while shopping at the bazaar. Other baked goods will also be on sale. Mrs. Roof asked any guild members wishing to donate food to contact her.

The General Guild voted to buy an incubator for the hospital. Lighting units have been ordered and are to be installed soon.

The meeting was adjourned, and refreshments were served by Guild 41.

League Plans Pumpkin Show Baby Parade

Child Study Patron League held its first meeting of the year recently in the home of Mrs. Ronald Miller, 1020 Mulberry Road, with Mrs. Carl Ott as co-hostess.

A cookout preceded the business session. Mrs. Julian Palm opened the meeting by reading "The Children's Bill of Rights." New program books were distributed to the 12 members present.

Letters were read from the outgoing State President, and the retiring District President. Both letters reminded members of the State Convention to be held during October in Dayton.

The club voted to send a contribution to the "Red Cross Shop Early - Vietnam" program.

Plans were finalized for the Baby Parade at the Pumpkin Show. Mrs. Larry Graham is chairman with Mrs. Regina Helwagen, Mrs. Ned Dresbach, Mrs. Donald Harden and Mrs. Lloyd Meyer helping with registration and other details. Each member registered for hours to work at the information booth during Pumpkin Show.

Mrs. Palm read an article entitled "The Time Has Come To Listen To Your Children," which was discussed by members.

Mystery sister names were drawn for the year. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Pumpkin Show Arts And Crafts Has New Exhibit

Fashions Made by Mother is a new class being added to the Home Arts and Crafts exhibits for the 1968 Pumpkin Show according to the department chairman, Mrs. Sterling Poling.

A new section, Pumpkin Show Fashions, introduced at the 1967 show has been expanded to include a class of clothing to be made and entered by a mother, grandmother or older sister of the model. The person making the entry as with all others in this department must reside within the Circleville trading area.

The class will have two sections. In section A the fashions are to be modeled by a boy or girl under six years of age. In section B, the model must be a boy or girl six to ten years of age inclusive.

Final judging of all garments in this section will be done at the E. Franklin St. platform on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 16, at 2:30.

Additional information regarding any of the fifty-three classes making up the Home Arts and Crafts division of Pumpkin Show may be secured from the chairman or from any member of the committee, who are Mrs. William Defenbaugh, Mrs. Walter Wright, Mrs. Royce Woolever, Mrs. Robert A. Jones, and Mrs. William D. Radcliff.

Advance entries may be made to the chairman, Mrs. Poling, by phone 474-5112 or by mail.

AAUW Holds First Meet Of Season

Circleville Branch of American Assn. of University Women began its 1968-69 program with a carry-in dessert smorgasbord at St. Joseph's Catholic Church basement. Each member brought her favorite dessert.

Mrs. James Stallings was guest speaker with her topic centered on "How Changing Values In Society Are Reflected In The Contemporary Arts." She tied in her experience with group dynamics in connection with self expression. She finished her program by throwing the meeting open to discussion.

The major business of the meeting was the Tour of Circleville Homes, which is being held Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m. Homes on the tour are those of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Bruno, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bowser, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Porck, Mr. and Mrs. Roger May Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Roger Bennington and Mr. and Mrs. William Camp. Tickets are available at Lou Deal's Flower Shops and on the day of the tour at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Bennington.

Proceeds from the tour will be used for AAUW Fellowships and other oriented activities of the Assn. Guests are asked not to smoke in the homes and

Berger Hospital General Guild Forum Is Held

The Berger Hospital General Guild Forum was held Thursday in the guild room of the hospital with 22 guilds represented.

Mrs. Randolph Clark, president, introduced the new officers: first vice president, Mrs. Robert McKelvey; second vice president, Mrs. Roger Bennington; recording secretary, Mrs. Gerald Doering; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Carl Russell; treasurer, Mrs. Michael Bruno. Serving also on the executive board are members at large, Mrs. William Bills and Mrs. Charles Brackett, immediate past president, Mrs. Manuel Sanguily; president of Guild 1, Mrs. William Myers; immediate past presidents of Guild 1, Mrs. Harold Brown and Mrs. Robert G. Smith; life member, Mrs. Edwin Shane, and Gift Shop Guild Chairman, Mrs. L. D. Varble.

Mrs. James Stambaugh, Berger Hospital Administrator, spoke briefly to the members, and thanked them for their contributions to the hospital.

Mrs. L. D. Varble announced the Christmas Tea will be held November 14, beginning at 2 p.m. at the hospital. Mrs. Terry Roof, bazaar chairman, announced the Christmas Bazaar will be Nov. 22 from 1 to 8 p.m. at the Eagles Lodge. She stated that Guild 45 will be in charge of the Money Tree. Mrs. Robert McKelvey will be the publicity chairman, and Guilds 1 and 2 will be in charge of the food booth. Patrons of the bazaar may purchase coffee and dessert while shopping at the bazaar. Other baked goods will also be on sale. Mrs. Roof asked any guild members wishing to donate food to contact her.

The General Guild voted to buy an incubator for the hospital. Lighting units have been ordered and are to be installed soon.

The meeting was adjourned, and refreshments were served by Guild 41.

League Plans Pumpkin Show Baby Parade

Child Study Patron League held its first meeting of the year recently in the home of Mrs. Ronald Miller, 1020 Mulberry Road, with Mrs. Carl Ott as co-hostess.

A cookout preceded the business session. Mrs. Juliann Palm opened the meeting by reading "The Children's Bill of Rights." New program books were distributed to the 12 members present.

Letters were read from the outgoing State President, and the retiring District President. Both letters reminded members of the State Convention to be held during October in Dayton.

The club voted to send a contribution to the "Red Cross Shop Early - Vietnam" program.

Plans were finalized for the Baby Parade at the Pumpkin Show. Mrs. Larry Graham is chairman with Mrs. Regina Helwagen, Mrs. Ned Dresbach, Mrs. Donald Harden and Mrs. Lloyd Meyer helping with registration and other details. Each member registered for hours to work at the information booth during Pumpkin Show.

Mrs. Palm read an article entitled "The Time Has Come To Listen To Your Children," which was discussed by members.

Mystery sister names were drawn for the year. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Art Study Group Schedules Meet

Mrs. Wayne K. Smith of Dunkle Road will host the Art Study Group of the American Assn. of University Women in her home 8 p.m. Tuesday.

Guest Speaker Set For Society Meet

Mrs. Velma Everhart, a professor at Ohio State University, will address the Wednesday meeting of Beta Rho Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma. The meeting will begin 7:45 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Judd H. Dresbach, Route 1, Ashville.

The theme of Mrs. Everhart's talk will be "There Is Glamour In Homemaking."

BACKACHE & TENSION

SECONDARY TO KIDNEY IRRITATION
Common Kidney or Bladder Irritations make many men and women feel tense and nervous from frequent burning or itching urination night and day. Secondly, you may lose sleep and have headache, backache and feel older, tired, depressed. In such cases, CYSTEX usually brings relaxing comfort by curbing irritating germs in acid urine and quickly easing pain. Get CYSTEX at drugists.

Furniture Revolution Brings Many New Ideas

By ELEANOR ROSS
It isn't evolution, it's revolution that is affecting every phase of today's living. So, of course, furniture has undergone and is undergoing radical changes. And with our genius for the techniques of production and of merchandising, the rare and the strange become the commonplace in short order.

Woman's Society Luncheon Scheduled

Community United Methodist Church Woman's Society will have as guests for its 12:30 p.m. luncheon on Wednesday, the Rev. and Mrs. George L. Sidwell.

Rev. and Mrs. Sidwell are on missionary furlough from Korea. They first went to Korea in 1955 and for ten years were assigned to rural evangelism in the Chonan area, 70 miles south of Seoul.

They are the parents of four children, George III, now attending the Methodist Seminary in Delaware; Donna Rae, a freshman at Ohio Wesleyan University; David, in the seventh grade, and Mary Kathryn, in the fifth grade.

Rev. Sidwell is serving as minister of mission at the North Broadway United Methodist Church in Columbus this year. The family will return to Korea next year.

Guild 47 Elects New Officers

Election of new officers was held during the Tuesday evening meeting of Berger Hospital Guild 47. The session was held in the home of Mrs. Lawrence Pritchard, 342 Eva Drive.

Elected were Mrs. Lawrence Pritchard, chairman; Mrs. James Hinton, vice chairman; Mrs. James Cassidy, treasurer, and Mrs. David Caudill, secretary.

The group discussed projects for the General Guild Bazaar. Refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the meeting.

Pumpkin Show Arts And Crafts Has New Exhibit

Fashions Made by Mother is a new class being added to the Home Arts and Crafts exhibits for the 1968 Pumpkin Show according to the department chairman, Mrs. Sterling Poling.

A new section, Pumpkin Show Fashions, introduced at the 1967 show has been expanded to include a class of clothing to be made and entered by a mother, grandmother or older sister of the model. The person making the entry as with all others in this department must reside within the Circleville trading area.

The class will have two sections. In section A the fashions are to be modeled by a boy or girl under six years of age. In section B, the model must be a boy or girl six to ten years of age inclusive.

Final judging of all garments in this section will be done at the E. Franklin St. platform on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 16, at 2:30.

Additional information regarding any of the fifty-three classes making up the Home Arts and Crafts division of Pumpkin Show may be secured from the chairman or from any member of the committee, who are Mrs. William Defenbaugh, Mrs. Walter Wright, Mrs. Royce Woolever, Mrs. Robert A. Jones, and Mrs. William D. Radcliff.

Advance entries may be made to the chairman, Mrs. Poling, by phone 474-5112 or by mail.

AAUW Holds First Meet Of Season

Circleville Branch of American Assn. of University Women began its 1968-69 program with a carry-in dessert smorgasbord at St. Joseph's Catholic Church basement. Each member brought her favorite dessert.

Mrs. James Stallings was guest speaker with her topic centered on "How Changing Values In Society Are Reflected In The Contemporary Arts." She tied in her experience with group dynamics in connection with self expression. She finished her program by throwing the meeting open to discussion.

The major business of the meeting was the Tour of Circleville Homes, which is being held Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m. Homes on the tour are those of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Bruno, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bowser, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Porck, Mr. and Mrs. Roger May Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Roger Bennington and Mr. and Mrs. William Camp.

Tickets are available at Lou Deal's Flower Shops and on the day of the tour at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Bennington.

Proceeds from the tour will be used for AAUW Fellowships and other oriented activities of the Assn. Guests are asked not to smoke in the homes and

Maintenance Head Named At Eshelman

ROGER LOZIER

Roger Lozier, Route 1, has been appointed maintenance superintendent of the Circleville Plant of John W. Eshelman & Sons, manufacturers of Red Rose Feeds.

The appointment, effective October 1, was announced by D. J. Carpenter, vice president and general manager of the local plant.

Lozier has been associated with the Eshelman firm since Aug. 7, 1937. After holding various production positions in the mill, he became associated with the maintenance department in December, 1960. Lozier succeeds the late Al Thomas.

American Girl Shows British Tips About Tea

LONDON (AP) — It was as if the British started lecturing the Americans on how to play baseball or eat hot dogs.

An American blonde flew to London over the weekend to tell the British how to drink tea, by gad.

Actress Karen Jordan, 22, of Toledo, Ohio, known as the Tea Queen or Miss Disco-Tea back home, was welcomed with suspicion.

Newspapers winced over Miss Jordan toasting the British Tea Information Service with a mixture of tea, whisky and lemon juice, and her habit of sipping tea laced with ice, lime or even grapefruit.

Miss Jordan began her three-week campaign by presenting a $20 gold piece at a reception to Davison and Newman, the firm

Black Nationalism Slowly Gains Strength

By AUSTIN SCOTT
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Joseph Waller Jr. divides his world into two groups—"beautiful black brothers," and "crackers."

To this lanky, black-skinned resident of St. Petersburg, Fla., all whites are "crackers," and blacks should have the right to keep them out of black neighborhoods. Change the word "crackers" to "white devils," or any one of several obscenities, and Waller's views become fairly representative of a growing phenomenon in city slums—black nationalism, the philosophy of Negroes who want complete separation from whites.

How the Weather Looks

OHIO WEATHER SUMMARY
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Official weather bureau summary for Ohio:

Skies remained clear over the state during the night and temperatures once more dropped into the 40s in many areas.

The state remained this morning under the influence of high pressure area extending from the Jersey coast through the upper Ohio Valley into the middle Mississippi Valley. The high is being forced slowly south.

Skies are expected to remain essentially clear with a definite trend toward higher temperatures tonight and Tuesday.

FORECASTS

OHIO—Mostly sunny and a little warmer today, high in the upper 60s to middle 70s. Clear but not so cool tonight, low 45-55. Tuesday mostly sunny and warmer.

Doormat Theft Nipped In Bud

WASHINGTON (AP) — Thomas R. Przybeck, 19, a student at Lehigh University in Bethlehem, Pa., came to Washington Sunday with a special assignment.

In order to qualify to join a fraternity at the university, he was told to latch on to the front doormat of the Soviet Embassy, he told police.

This was after police Pvt. Donald G. Odell, who was patrolling nearby, put a quick end to the adventure.

Przybeck, whose home is in Reading, Pa., was charged with petty larceny, police said.

which lost 342 crates of tea when American colonists dumped it from a ship in Boston Harbor in 1773.

night. Slowly rising temperatures. High today in the middle 70s. Low tonight in the 50s.

CENTRAL, EAST CENTRAL, SOUTHEAST OHIO — Sunny today, high in the lower 70s and upper 60s. Fair and not quite so cool tonight, low 45-52. Mostly sunny and warmer Tuesday.

OHIO FIVE-DAY FORECAST

Temperatures will average near normal Tuesday through Saturday with highs near 70 in the north to the mid 70s in the south, and lows near 50. Warmer around midweek. Turning cooler near the end of the week along with showers averaging a quarter to a half inch in the northwest but little if any likely in the south and east.

The black marlin may weigh from 60 to 1,560 pounds.

A decade ago these sentiments were voiced only by lonely figures who stood on Harlem street corners, haranguing crowds that largely ignored them.

Surveys show that American Negroes are still pretty much ignoring the message. Separation has not begun to replace integration as an ultimate goal. But the nationalist point of view is enjoying something of a resurgence.

A white man who tried to join a conversation among Negro youths in a Washington park recently was asked to leave because "this is a black unity meeting, we just want black cats here."

When he protested that whites interested enough to listen should be welcomed, he was told that black people had to organize themselves before they could begin talking to the white cats.

An Associated Press survey indicates that although city governments estimate the nationalist population from tiny to almost nonexistent, the day when they could be safely ignored may be over.

In Cleveland, the group accused of starting the July sniper attack that killed 11 persons called themselves nationalists.

So did many of the volunteers who walked the streets all the next night, with the approval of Negro Mayor Carl Stokes, pleading with angry crowds not to throw bricks or set fires.

But before they agreed to become peacekeepers, they insisted that all white police be kept out of the trouble zone. Many said they were not so much interested in quelling a riot as in heading off a confrontation with police that might end in a "wholesale slaughter of blacks."

Here in the capital, an umbrella group called the Black United Front, formed early this year at the urging of Stokely

Antiloitering Law Protested

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Hollywood's hippies don't like the new antiloitering ordinance aimed at keeping them off Sunset Strip.

About 500 young demonstrators marched along the strip Saturday night carrying signs criticizing the City Council and county supervisors for passing the laws. There were no incidents or arrests.

The ordinance was passed after merchants on Sunset Boulevard complained that hippies were driving away their customers. The law makes it a misdemeanor to "unreasonably" loiter on any county street or sidewalk.

A similar law will go into effect in Los Angeles early next month.

Here in the capital, an umbrella group called the Black United Front, formed early this year at the urging of Stokely

Carmichael, has followed nationalist urgings and excluded whites from its neighborhood meetings.

Some members don't believe in racial separation, notably the Rev. Walter Fauntroy, vice-chairman of the district council, but they go along with the tactic in hopes of welding together Washington's Negroes, who make up 65 per cent of the city's population, into a genuinely effective force.

Mayor John V. Lindsay of New York regularly consults black nationalists in his so far successful efforts to keep the peace in his gigantic melting pot.

Black Muslims and other "hard core" nationalists, who urge establishing a separate nation in this country for blacks, admit they represent only a tiny majority of Negro opinion.

They argue, however, that time is on their side. Give the United States long enough, they say, and the actions of her white majority eventually will convince a majority of Negroes that they cannot hope to exist as equals with whites.

Views on Television

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Now that all the 20-odd new programs have had their premieres, the public will have time to take a look at the returning television series to see what, if any, changes have been wrought over the summer.

"The Smothers Brothers Comedy Hour"—or as they would have it, "The Smothers Comedy Brothers Show"—was back Sunday night on CBS for its third season, as full of contemporary comment as usual and perhaps with the comedy in a little shorter supply.

The jokes, in fact, seemed to hang primarily on the fact that both brothers had sprouted mustaches and that Dickie had let his hair grow.

The show opened—invariably—with a satiric jibe at political conventions. It was followed by a song by the two stars outlining not only the woes of the nation but their own censorship problems.

Cass Elliott of the musical group the Mamas and the Pappas, a guest star, first sang a grim song about a California earthquake illustrated by pictures of crumbling buildings. Harry Belafonte was, as usual, tremendously effective in a couple of musical numbers. And Pat Paulsen, continuing his mock presidential campaign, fired sharp political wisecracks in the direction of all three real aspirants.

Then, also on CBS, came "Mission: Impossible," saving a Balkan kingdom for the good guys. Everything was as usual—lots of gimmicks and disguises—Barbara Bain was made up to look about 80 in this role.

Nothing has changed on ABC's "The FBI"—not even its preoccupation with gun play and fist fights.

Jackie Gleason returned Saturday with his regular cast intact for a frolicsome musical edition of "The Honeymooners." There will be fewer of those this year, but the Great One was in good form.

"The Don Rickles Show" had its ABC premiere Friday night, a half-hour without much form but apparently designed to permit the star to indulge in his specialty—hurling barbed remarks in a good natured way. Rickles worked hard; his straight man, Pat McCormick, laughed a lot, and Danny Thomas came along to help. Nothing worked out very well for Rickles who is funnier as a guest on someone else's show than on his own.

Robert Stack appeared in the first of his quota of "The Name of the Game" episodes on NBC. Gene Barry, the third star of the series, will have his starring debut next Friday. Stack plays a crusading editor of a crime magazine and in the first show was busily finding and then trying to protect a vital witness in a mafia killing. It was a suspenseful, well produced show although along familiar lines. Stack invested the role with the same humorless intensity that made his Eliot Ness the nemesis of Chicago bootleggers.

CAMPAIGN TRAIL—Campaigning in St. Louis for the U.S. Congress on the Democratic ticket, James W. Symington, his wife (right) and two children, Julie, 13, and Jeremy, 11, ride in a pedicab Symington brought back from Malaysia. He is 40, a former chief of protocol and the son of Missouri's senior senator, Stuart Symington.

OSU Is Swamped By Enrollees

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State University has 11,770 students and 11,600 beds to put them in. As a result, a lounge in Taylor Tower now is a mass bedroom for girls and 16 men have been assigned to four-bedroom suites in Lincoln and Morrill Towers.

OSU Housing Director Milton Overholt said the normal number of students who leave school in the first few weeks will eliminate the current overflow.

Local Church World Service Group Starts

An organization meeting for the Church World Service (CWS) CROP Community Appeals campaign was held Friday at the Calvary United Methodist Church.

Rev. Glenn Biddle was present from headquarters in Columbus to present the program for the fall campaign which will begin Nov. 10. Its major thrust will be from Nov. 10 to 30.

The board is composed of representatives from various churches and church organizations, civic groups, farm organizations and other key persons in the community.

CROP instituted a self-help program 25 years ago to attack the root causes of hunger as well as emergency programs for disaster areas such as Biafra which is now getting 100 tons of food per day. CWS - CROP is sharing in this project.

The goal for contributions this year in Pickaway County has been set at $1,000. Last year contributions totaled $705.

Mrs. Clarence Boyer, Route 1, was named treasurer and Mrs. G. H. Niswender, publicity chairman for the campaign.

Equal Time Vote Eyed; Chances Dim

WASHINGTON (AP) — The bill to exempt televised Humphrey-Nixon-Wallace debates from equal time requirements could get a House vote this week, but the outlook for such confrontations is dim indeed.

The bill is on the House calendar, subject to clearance from the Rules Committee which has scheduled a meeting on the issue for Thursday.

But House members close to the situation doubt that the debates would materialize even if Congress passes the bill in its present form.

Republican presidential candidate Richard M. Nixon has said he would debate Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey if Congress suspends the equal time requirement. But he has flatly rejected taking part in a three-way affair with third party candidate George C. Wallace.

Humphrey has said he would go along with the three-man format.

The House Commerce Committee modified a Senate-passed bill to specify that the exemption would apply only to debates which provided all major candidates "opportunity for equivalent appearances."

Rep. J. J. Pickle, D-Tex., author of that language before it was modified, said his original wording would have permitted the exemption only on programs with equivalent appearances instead of those with opportunity for equal appearances by the trio.

"My clear intent was to allow a three-way debate or no debate at all," Pickle said.

New Ohio River Bridge Work Eyed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Department of Highways will open bids here Oct. 15 on Ohio's approach to the new Ohio River bridge to replace the fallen Silver Bridge.

The estimated cost of the four-lane approach is $3,232,000. It would connect with Ohio 35 near Gallipolis and should be completed about one year from now. Completion date for the new bridge is late next year.

Czech Communist Party In Trouble With Statutes

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

The Czechoslovak Communist party, waging an uphill battle for political reforms which provoke Soviet wrath, is going forward with consideration of new statutes governing its rule over the nation.

The Russians are frowning. The projected statutes were drafted several weeks before the Soviet invasion. In their original form, they fail to meet Soviet demands for total party domination of the country.

To a Westerner, the statutes would hardly seem liberal, even in the original form. If there is a suggestion of more freedom in the draft, it is freedom for party members within the framework, rather than for Czechoslovaks in general. But even those changes are rejected by Moscow as dangerous examples for ruling parties elsewhere.

Toledo Residents Injured In Blast

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Six Toledo residents were hospitalized Sunday when a gas line exploded, causing damage estimated at $33,250 to the home of Roland Herder. The injured, all members of the Herder family, were reported in fair condition at hospitals here.

Authorities said Herder, 45, apparently was working on a gas heater when the explosion occurred.

This week said the statutes as drafted remain valid, though he conceded there might have to be modification of some of the articles. The extent of that modification could be one determining factor in how soon the bulk of Soviet troops leave Czechoslovakia.

As the statutes now stand, they extend the right of a minority, within the party, to retain its viewpoint even after the majority has made an opposed decision. The minority would be able to demand that its view be placed on the record and to seek a reassessment of the decision from time to time.

This does not mean that the minority can reject the majority's decision within the party.

The statutes carefully point out that "democratic centralism" must be the basic principle, which means that when a decision is voted by a party body, it must be unquestioningly obeyed by all, whatever their views.

Dickinson Wins Pickaway Am

PICKAWAY AM — Dallas Elliot Jr. won low net and Tim Dickinson Low Gross in the first annual Pickaway County amateur held at Upper Landsdowne and Pickaway Country Club Saturday and Sunday. Shown in the trophy presentation are, from the left, Jack Hutchinson, tourney director; Elliott, Dickinson, Bob MacFadden, tourney director.

Tim Dickinson won the 1968 Pickaway County Amateur Golf Tournament Sunday, firing a four under par 140 for the 36 hole event.

Dickinson toured the first 18 holes at Upper Landsdowne with a one under 71 and finished strongly at Pickaway Country Club, his home course, with a three under 69 for his winning effort.

At Landsdowne he birdied three holes and bogied two while at Pickaway, he scored five birds and two bogies.

Bruce Helwagen, PCC champion, finished second with a 144. Ron Leatherwood, Landsdowne club champion, and Steve Helwagen shared third place honors with 151.

DALLAS Elliot Jr. won low net by carding a 132 on a net 71 at Landsdowne and a net 61 at PCC. Second low net was won by Jim Dawson with a 136 while Dan Hindy and Dean MacFadden shared third with 139.

Other gross winners in the tournament were Bob Moon, 136; Greg Peck, 138; Bob MacFadden, 159; Tom McGuire and

Smith Gets Al Kaline Into Lineup

DETROIT (AP) — Busy with crucial decisions to activate slugger Eddie Mathews and restore power hitter Al Kaline to the starting line-up, Detroit Manager Mayo Smith hardly noticed the Tigers' 3-2 loss to Washington Sunday in the last game of the regular American League season.

Smith's first words to newsmen in the Tigers' dressing room after the loss were, "The shortstop will be Mickey Stanley."

"Now don't ask me why. That's all," he said abruptly, his mind occupied fully with the coming first game of the World Series on Wednesday against the Cardinals at St. Louis.

"This is not done for sentiment to get an Al Kaline into the line-up," said Smith. "I want you to understand that. I just want to get an extra bat in the line-up."

The move will give the Tigers the benefit of Kaline's hitting talent in the game. The 291 slugger will play right field in place of Jim Northrup, who will move to center.

Smith said he would rather have Stanley play short because of his hitting ability, instead of either Ray Oyler or Tom Matchew, both weak hitters this year. Stanley wound up the season with a .259 average.

Mayo said he made the decision on Stanley Sunday, along with the decision to put Mathews, who has batted a deceptively low .212, on the Series eligibility list. Smith dropped reliever John Wyatt from the list to make room for the 36-year-old veteran.

Bud Hritz, 163; Mike Brown, 169; Other net winners were Jack Hutchinson, 141; Jerry Kraus, 142; Ray Bullock and Joe List, 146; Lloyd Kittle and Walt Baker, 148.

Tournament directors Jack Hutchinson and Bob MacFadden termed the event a successful one and look forward to even greater participation next year.

Cards Beat Houston In Series Warmup

Associated Press Sports Writer Richie Allen and the St. Louis Cardinals are ready for the next stop. Only the Cardinals are sure where it will be.

St. Louis prepared for its World Series date with Detroit with an 11-1 romp over Houston Sunday that helped erase memories of a mediocre September for the National League champions.

Allen, reportedly unhappy and anxious to be traded, walloped three home runs including a grand slam and drove in seven runs in Philadelphia's 10-3 rout of the New York Mets.

In other National League action on Sunday's final day, Atlanta nipped Los Angeles 2-1, Chicago shaded Pittsburgh 5-4 and Cincinnati shut out San Francisco 3-0.

The Cardinals packed nine runs into the second inning—three of them scoring on a single by Orlando Cepeda.

Cepeda, Tim McCarver and Mike Shannon had two hits apiece in the rally. The defeat spelled a 10th place finish for the Astros—the first time they've ended in the basement.

The Cards' explosion of runs matched their season's high and ended a lengthy slump. In fact, since clinching the pennant on Sept. 15, St. Louis had not managed more than five runs in any game. They concluded the month of September with an 11-13 record.

Allen, who struck out a record 160 times and finished the season with a .263 average, murdered the Mets with his barrage of homers.

His first tied the score in the sixth. Then, after Clay Dalrymple hit a two-run shot in the seventh, Allen connected in the eighth and again, with the bases loaded, in the ninth. The three shots gave him 33 homers and 90 runs batted in for the year.

"A change of scenery would do me good," he said.

The Pirates made six errors and it cost them a share of fifth place as the Cubs pushed across a run in the ninth inning to beat them.

Giants Drub Washington

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer The Jones boy has New York buzzing again and a couple of Smiths are hitting it big for Baltimore. But Green Bay has had its fill of just-plain Bills.

Speedster Homer Jones, shackled in New York's first two National Football League games this season, snared five Fran Tarkenton passes for 179 yards and two touchdowns Sunday as the Giants drubbed the Washington Redskins 48-21 for their third consecutive victory.

The Smiths—285-pound Bubba and 250-pound Billy Ray of Baltimore's defensive line—set up three interceptions that were run back for touchdowns as the unbeaten Colts demolished the Pittsburgh Steelers 41-7.

At Green Bay, Bill Munson's second scoring strike to Billy Gambrell, a 12-yard flip with 1:55 to play, gave the Detroit Lions a 23-17 nod over the Packers, who have lost two in a row for a 1-2 mark—their worst start since 1958.

A week ago, Bill Brown scored two early touchdowns and rambled for 74 yards in Minnesota's 26-13 ambush of the defending NFL champs.

Elsewhere, the Dallas Cowboys crushed Philadelphia 45-13 for a 3-0 mark; the Los Angeles Rams cuffed Cleveland 24-6 for their third straight triumph; the Chicago Bears ended a two-game tailspin by trimming Minnesota 27-17; the St. Louis Cardinals nipped New Orleans 21-20 with a late rally and the San Francisco 49ers beat Atlanta 28-13.

Jones, who grabbed 49 passes for 1,209 yards and a league-leading 13 touchdowns last year, went into Sunday's game with three interceptions and no scores. But he clicked with Tarkenton on an 82-yard bomb in the second period and a 56-yarder in the third.

Baltimore's Bobby Boyd, Charlie Stukes and Roy Hilton returned pass thefts for touchdowns, tying the single game NFL record.

Bubba Smith tossed Steeler quarterback Kent Nix and Dick Shiner for three losses and deflected a Shiner pass that Hilton picked off for a 13-yard touchdown return. Billy Ray Smith got to the harassed Pittsburgh passers twice and hurried Nix into an interception returned 60 yards by Stukes for a score.

Logan Elm Braves Fumble Away Opportunity In Scoreless Deadlock With Miller High Falcons

Logan Elm and Miller fought to a 0-0 standoff Saturday afternoon on the MHS football field in Perry County.

Neither team showed much in the way of offense, although Logan Elm fumbled away a scoring chance at the one yard line early in the second half.

With the tie, the Braves will carry a 1-2-1 record into Scioto Valley Conference schedule which begins for them Friday with Westfall.

In spite of their lack of a scoring punch Saturday, the Braves played a sound defensive game for most of the tilt.

THE deepest penetration by the Miller Falcons into Logan Elm territory came in the second quarter. Miller started a drive at its own 21 yard line and advanced as far as the Braves' 10, where they had a third down and four yards for the first down situation.

The Miller back was thrown for a six yard loss at that point by middle guard Mark Kempton. The hosts failed to make the necessary yardage for a first down on the next play and the Braves took over.

On their next series with the ball, Miller's Falcons were held for six yards in three efforts and were forced to punt from their own 42.

Tom Seimers blitzed through the line to block the punt and with 5:44 to go in the half, the Braves took over on the Miller 15 yard line.

Mike Weaver carried for three yards to the 12. An aerial by Seimers intended for Byron Sykes was incomplete and then Logan Elm was caught offside by the officials and penalized five yards back to the 17.

From there, Rick Lear picked up a yard, and Weaver was stopped after an eight yard gain, not enough for a first down, and the Braves were stopped at the eight.

MILLER took over the ball. On the first play, they gained six yards. On the next, an illegal motion penalty nullified that gain.

Ford Is Winner Of Le Mans Race

LE MANS, France (AP) — The way Pedro Rodriguez was telling it, he and Lucien Bianchi were in no hurry when they gave Ford its third straight victory in the 24-hour Le Mans automobile classic.

The veteran Mexican driver said the winning Ford GT-40 could have set a lap record on the last go-around Sunday, but "there would have been no point in it."

Tribe Winds Up In AL 3rd Slot

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The Cleveland Indians wound up in third place in the American League for their best finish since 1959.

The Indians, who finished eighth last year, played their last game Friday, then had to wait to see how Boston and New York did to find out where they stood.

New Way Found To Stop Hair Loss, Grow More Hair

HOUSTON, Texas — If you don't suffer from male pattern baldness, you can now stop your hair loss ... and grow more hair.

For years "they said it couldn't be done." But now a firm of laboratory consultants has developed a treatment for both men and women, that is not only stopping hair loss ... but is really growing hair!

They don't even ask you to take their word for it. If they believe that the treatment will help you, they invite you to try it for 32 days, at their risk, and see for yourself!

Naturally, they would not offer this "no risk" trial unless the treatment worked. However, it is impossible to help everyone.

The great majority of cases of excessive hair fall and baldness are the beginning and more fully developed stages of male pattern baldness and cannot be helped.

But, if you are not already slick bald, how can you be sure what is actually causing your hair loss? Even if baldness may seem to "run in your family," this is certainly no proof of the cause of YOUR hair loss.

Many conditions can cause hair loss. No matter which one is causing your hair loss, if you wait until you are slick bald and your hair roots are dead, you are beyond help. So, if you still have any hair on top of your head, and would like to stop your hair loss and grow more hair ... now is the time to do something about it before it's too late.

Loesch Laboratory Consultants, Inc., will supply you with treatment for 32 days, at their risk, if they believe the treatment will help you. Just send them the information listed below. All inquiries are answered confidentially, by mail and without obligation.

Dickinson Wins Pickaway Am

PICKAWAY AM — Dallas Elliot Jr. won low net and Tim Dickinson Low Gross in the first annual Pickaway County amateur held at Upper Landsdowne and Pickaway Country Club Saturday and Sunday. Shown in the trophy presentation are, from the left, Jack Hutchinson, tourney director; Elliott, Dickinson, Bob MacFadden, tourney director.

Tim Dickinson won the 1968 Pickaway County Amateur Golf Tournament Sunday, firing a four under par 140 for the 36 hole event.

Dickinson toured the first 18 holes at Upper Landsdowne with a one under 71 and finished strongly at Pickaway Country Club, his home course, with a three under 69 for his winning effort.

At Landsdowne he birdied three holes and bogied two while at Pickaway, he scored five birds and two bogies.

Bruce Helwagen, PCC champion, finished second with a 144. Ron Leatherwood, Landsdowne club champion, and Steve Helwagen shared third place honors with 151.

DALLAS Elliot Jr. won low net by carding a 132 on a net 71 at Landsdowne and a net 61 at PCC. Second low net was won by Jim Dawson with a 136 while Dan Hindy and Dean MacFadden shared third with 139s.

Other gross winners in the tournament were Bob Moon, 136; Greg Peck, 138; Bob MacFadden, 159; Tom McGuire and

Smith Gets Al Kaline Into Lineup

DETROIT (AP) — Busy with crucial decisions to activate slugger Eddie Mathews and restore power hitter Al Kaline to the starting line-up, Detroit Manager Mayo Smith hardly noticed the Tigers' 3-2 loss to Washington Sunday in the last game of the regular American League season.

Smith's first words to newsmen in the Tigers' dressing room after the loss were, "The shortstop will be Mickey Stanley.

"Now don't ask me why. That's all," he said abruptly, his mind occupied fully with the coming first game of the World Series on Wednesday against the Cardinals at St. Louis.

"This is not done for sentiment to get an Al Kaline into the line-up," said Smith, "I want you to understand that. I just want to get an extra bat in the line-up."

The move will give the Tigers the benefit of Kaline's hitting talent in the game. The 291 slugger will play right field in place of Jim Northrup, who will move to center.

Smith said he would rather have Stanley play short because of his hitting ability, instead of either Ray Oyler or Tom Matchick, both weak hitters this year. Stanley wound up the season with a .259 average.

Mayo said he made the decision on Stanley Sunday, along with the decision to put Mathews, who has batted a deceptively low .212 on the Series eligibility list. Smith dropped reliever John Wyatt from the list to make room for the 36-year-old veteran.

Cards Beat Houston In Series Warmup

Associated Press Sports Writer Richie Allen and the St. Louis Cardinals are ready for the next stop. Only the Cardinals are sure where it will be.

St. Louis prepared for its World Series date with Detroit Sunday that helped erase memories of a mediocre September for the National League champions.

Allen, reportedly unhappy and anxious to be traded, walloped three home runs including a grand slam and drove in seven runs in Philadelphia's 10-3 rout of the New York Mets.

In other National League action on Sunday's final day, Atlanta nipped Los Angeles 2-1, Chicago shaded Pittsburgh 5-4 and Cincinnati shut out San Francisco 3-0.

The Cardinals packed nine runs into the second inning—three of them scoring on a single by Orlando Cepeda.

Cepeda, Tim McCarver and Mike Shannon had two hits apiece in the rally. The defeat spelled a 10th place finish for the Astros—the first time they've ended in the basement.

The Cards' explosion of runs matched their season's high and ended a lengthy slump. In fact, since clinching the pennant on Sept. 15, St. Louis had not managed more than five runs in any game. They concluded the month of September with an 11-13 record.

Allen, who struck out a record 160 times and finished the season with a .263 average, murdered the Mets with his barrage of homers.

His first tied the score in the sixth. Then, after Clay Dalrymple hit a two-run shot in the seventh, Allen connected in the eighth and again, with the bases loaded, in the ninth. The three shots gave him 33 homers and 90 runs batted in for the year.

"A change of scenery would do me good," he said.

The Pirates made six errors and it cost them a share of fifth place as the Cubs pushed across a run in the ninth inning to beat them.

Giants Drub Washington

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer The Jones boy has New York buzzing again and a couple of Smiths are hitting it big for Baltimore. But Green Bay has had its fill of just-plain Jones.

Speedster Homer Jones, shackled in New York's first two National Football League games this season, snared five Fran Tarkenton passes for 179 yards and two touchdowns Sunday as the Giants drubbed the Washington Redskins 48-21 for their third consecutive victory.

The Smiths—235-pound Bubba and 250-pound Billy Ray of Baltimore's defensive line—set up three interceptions that were run back for touchdowns as the unbeaten Colts demolished the Pittsburgh Steelers 41-7.

At Green Bay, Bill Munson's second scoring strike to Billy Gambrell, a 12-yard flip with 1:55 to play, gave the Detroit Lions a 23-17 nod over the Packers, who have lost two in a row for a 1-2 mark—their worst start since 1958.

Then Kempton knifed through to dump the ball carrier for a two yard loss. On the next play, it was Kempton again hitting through the line, this time tackling the Miller ball carrier on the one yard line, with an assist from Danny Fausnaugh.

Miller's punt went only to the 34 yard line. But after moving forward to the 27, a pitchout was fumbled. It was recovered by Seimers, but not before a 13-yard loss was chalked against the Braves.

The half ended two plays later with Miller in possession of the pigskin.

On the first play from scrimmage in the second half, Miller fumbled and the ball was recovered by Seimers at the 36-yard line.

The Braves proceeded to march to the one-yard line in eight plays, with Mike Weaver, Seimers and Fausnaugh carrying the ball.

A FUMBLED handoff popped into the air, and Miller recovered at the eight yard line.

Neither team mounted a serious scoring threat for the remainder of the game. Miller moved as deep as the Logan Elm 24-yard line once in the second half, but was held on downs.

The Braves started a drive late in the fourth period, only to have it thwarted at the 31 yard line of Miller on a fumbled pitchout.

The Braves' offense and defense both suffered a blow early in the first quarter when end Danny Ankrom sustained a chest injury and did not play for the remainder of the game.

Coach Marc Albright was forced to go with two freshmen after that. Brad Barr replaced Ankrom on offense and Wertie Teets on defense.

Logan Elm gained only 122 yards in the game. But the Braves held the Miller squad to a grand total of just 83. Mike Weaver and Danny Fausnaugh accounted for the bulk of the LE yardage. Weaver picked up 79 yards rushing and Fausnaugh 41.

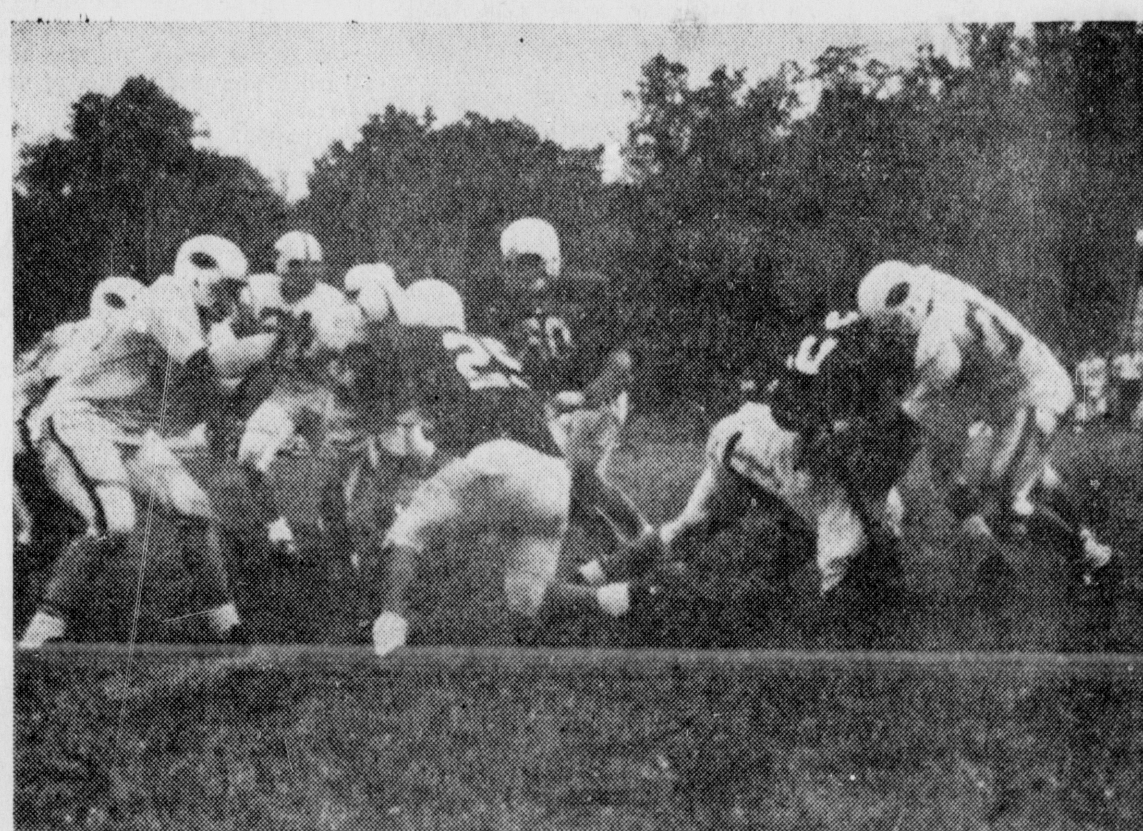

SEIMERS completed two passes in nine attempts. The two passes accounted for 25 yards. Miller completed three of ten passes, good for 22 yards.

Logan Elm fumbled the ball four times, losing three of the bobbles. Miller fumbled twice and lost both of them. Logan Elm punted six times, averaging 29 yards per kick. Miller punted five times, averaging 26 yards per kick, including the blocked boot.

Logan Elm gained ten first downs and Miller eight. The Braves were penalized four times for 30 yards and Miller twice for 20 yards.

"It looks like fate is against us," Albright said after the game. His Braves have held four opponents this year to just three touchdowns, but have won only one game.

The game this Friday with Westfall will be played on the Logan Elm field.

Bengals Beaten By San Diego Chargers, 31-10

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

CINCINNATI (AP)—Old war-horse Sid Gillman returned to the once friendly surroundings of Nippert Stadium and picked up another victory.

It was like old times for the general manager and coach of the San Diego Chargers. As head coach of the University of Cincinnati from 1949 to 1955, Gillman compiled an impressive 50-13-1 record.

The 56-year-old veteran mentor didn't get many cheers from the 28,642 Cincinnati fans Sunday but was more than delighted after his Chargers stopped the Bengals 31-10 in an American Football League encounter.

It was the third straight triumph for the unbeaten West Coast club and Cincinnati's first loss at home. The Bengals are now 2-2, with both of the setbacks at the hands of Gillman and Co.

San Diego whipped Cincinnati 29-13 three weeks ago "but winning Sunday was much tougher," Gillman admitted.

"Paul Brown is doing some job here. The Bengals are really doing well and gave us a hard game."

And Bengals boss Brown wasn't too disappointed after his team went down.

"We were playing a superior team and we knew it. But we fought all the way and stayed in there pretty well considering the mistakes we made," Brown said.

Chargers' quarterback John Hadl, a seven-year pro from Kansas, was superb in engineering the victory. He connected on touchdown passes of 10 and 19 yards with split end

Gary Garrison and scored San Diego's final touchdowns on plunges of two and one yard.

The Chargers' defensive unit played a strong game, intercepting two passes that set up a touchdown and a field goal and checking the Bengals with 195 yards total offense.

Brown paid tribute to Garrison, the former San Diego State star who caught five passes for 121 yards.

"We weren't surprised by his ability—he's in the same category as Alworth," Brown said. He was referring to flanker Lance Alworth, an all-league performer who played decoy most of the day, catching only one pass for 11 yards.

Cincinnati showed its best form moving 66 yards in the first quarter before the drive stalled and Dale Livingston booted a 21-yard field goal. The 3-0 lead was short-lived and the Bengals last advantage of the game.

Hadl's two touchdown passes and a 21-yard field goal by Dennis Partee gave the Chargers 17 second half points.

The stubborn Bengals made it close when linebacker Sherrill Headrick stole a Hadl pass on San Diego's 29. Seven plays later Essex Johnson, in his only carry of the day, swept six yards around right end for a touchdown and the Bengals trailed 17-10 midway through the third period.

But a Cincinnati drive late in the same quarter died on San Diego's 33 and Livingston missed a field goal.

The Chargers kept the decision when Bob Howard's interception of a Dewey Warren toss set up Hadl's first TD run. The winners added a second fourth quarter score when Hadl bucked over from the one after directing a nine-play, 52-yard march.

Rams Slam Browns, 24-6, At Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—George Allen summed it up: We had Cleveland on the ropes for the whole ball game.

The 82,514 at Cleveland Municipal Stadium Sunday couldn't argue with that, although the Los Angeles Rams' coach added:

"But we had a hard time knocking them out."

The knockout in the Rams' 24-6 National Football League victory came in the fourth quarter when Los Angeles got untracked and scored two touchdowns to put it away.

It was only a matter of time when you consider:

—The Browns had a total of six first downs.

—They never ran a play from scrimmage on the Rams' side of the 50-yard line.

Cleveland's touchdown was a 53-yard pass from Frank Ryan to Paul Warfield in the last two minutes of the first half. Don Cockroft's extra point was blocked and the Rams led 10-6, but it was all they needed.

Rams' defensive end Dave Jones explains why.

"We forced them to keep their five interior linemen and two running backs in to block against us," Jones said. "This meant they only had three possible receivers. But we had seven men back to cover them."

"That's a good situation, seven against three."

It took the Rams three minutes to take their first quarter lead. A Cleveland fumble and a Rams' interception did it.

Maxie Baughman grabbed a Ryan pass and Bruce Gossett booted a 22-yard field goal. Cleveland fumbled the next kickoff and Tommy Mason scored from the six-yard line with 2:58 left in the quarter, the first of his two touchdowns.

Paul Conley of Piketon was second and Charles Shumway of Lucasville third. Winning the first consi was Jerry Rucker of Chillicothe while Ron Derring of Jackson took the second.

High Scores Mark Ohio College Grid Games

By TOM GARDNER
Associated Press Writer

Saturday was a day of one-sided scores and outstanding individual performances in Ohio college football. The high scores generally were a result of the star player's efforts.

Among the major teams in action, Ohio State trounced Southern Methodist 35-14, Miami shut out Western Michigan 28-0, Ohio University bombed Kent State 31-7 and Toledo rolled over Marshall 35-12.

In games involving smaller schools Bethany smashed Case Tech 69-14, Wooster beat Swarthmore 37-0, Wittenberg belted Capital 41-8, Baldwin-Wallace ran past Wisconsin-Milwaukee 48-8 and Ashland beat Otterbein 42-12.

Performance honors in the OSU game went to sophomore quarterback Rex Kern, who fired two touchdown passes and ran for a third SMU quarterback Chuck Hixson put on a good show too, completing 37 of 69 passes for 417 yards to set three SMU records.

The star of a close game between Cincinnati and Xavier was UC end Jim O'Brien, whose 40-yard field goal in the last quarter broke a 14-14 deadlock and gave the Bearcats a 17-14 victory.

In the Mid-American Conference, Ohio University tailback Bob Houmard and Miami's Cleveland Dickerson and Kent Thompson spelled victories for their squads.

Houmard scored three times for the Bobcats as they won their second straight MAC game. Dickerson and Thompson accounted for all four Red-skin touchdowns, scoring twice apiece.

Toledo extended its winning streak to 12 in beating Marshall. But its longest string of victories in major college football goes on the line next Saturday when the Rockets meet powerhouse Ohio U. The two squads shared the MAC championship last season.

Bethany's Ernie Whitted scored four of his team's 10 touchdowns as the Bisons piled up 500 yards against Case. Baldwin-Wallace amassed 676 yards against Wisconsin of Milwaukee with halfback Pete Baumgartner accounting for 183 yards and three touchdowns.

Ashland's Dave Gray scored 20 points against Otterbein as the Eagles picked up their 15th straight win. Ed Thompson picked up 122 yards and two touchdowns to lead Wooster's attack on Swarthmore and John Carroll quarterback Dan Rennehan scored twice in the 30-8 effort against Washington & Jefferson.

The Ohio Conference season opened with eight of the 14 OC teams seeing action.

Wittenberg fullback Bill Noble scored twice and picked up 157 yards rushing against Capital. Mount Union intercepted five Kenyon passes while rolling over the Lords 21-8. Marietta beat Muskingum for the first time since 1937, 7-0, and a pair of touchdown passes from Dan Duffey to Steve Hicks in the fourth quarter carried Oberlin past Hiram 20-17.

Bowling Green continued its mastery over Dayton, winning its 11th straight game with the Flyers 20-14. Quarterback P.J. Nyitray passed for one touchdown and ran for another.

Denison halfback Scott Trumbull scored on a pass from Eric Schults and both men scored on short runs as the Big Red beat Washington of St. Louis 21-12. Findlay edged Central State 13-6, piling up nearly 200 yards in the first half.

Wilmington held Earlham to a 7-7 tie, but other Ohio teams did not fare so well against out-of-state foes.

Westminster (Pa.) bounced Heidelberg 21-7, Alma (Mich.) downed Defiance 21-15, Allegheny (Pa.) blanked Adelbert 16-0, Tampa (Fla.) rolled over Akron 24-9, Waynesburg (Pa.) shut out Ohio Northern 19-0 and Grand Rapids (Mich.) beat Bluffton 21-6.

WHAT? ALREADY?—Yep, it's basketball, even if it is an exhibition. The Cincy Royals and the Milwaukee Bucks are having a go at it in Milwaukee. They're in NBA.

Downey Wins Hobby Stock Championship

Don Downey of Jackson won the Atomic hobby stock championship Sunday in the final race of the season at the speedway.

Finishing second in the feature event was Don Stump of Whisler while Joe Russo of Circleville was third.

Bengals Beaten By San Diego Chargers, 31-10

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer
CINCINNATI (AP)—Old war-horse Sid Gillman returned to the once friendly surroundings of Nippert Stadium and picked up another victory.

It was like old times for the general manager and coach of the San Diego Chargers. As head coach of the University of Cincinnati from 1949 to 1955, Gillman compiled an impressive 50-13-1 record.

The 56-year-old veteran mentor didn't get many cheers from the 28,642 Cincinnati fans Sunday but was more than delighted after his Chargers stopped the Bengals 31-10 in an American Football League encounter.

It was the third straight triumph for the unbeaten West Coast club and Cincinnati's first loss at home. The Bengals are now 2-2, with both of the setbacks at the hands of Gillman and Co.

San Diego whipped Cincinnati 29-13 three weeks ago "but winning Sunday was much tougher," Gillman admitted.

"Paul Brown is doing some job here. The Bengals are really doing well and gave us a hard game."

And Bengals boss Brown wasn't too disappointed after his team went down.

"We were playing a superior team and we knew it. But we fought all the way and stayed in there pretty well considering the mistakes we made," Brown said.

Chargers' quarterback John Hadl, a seven-year pro from Kansas, was superb in engineering the victory. He connected on touchdown passes of 10 and 19 yards with split end

Gary Garrison and scored San Diego's final touchdowns on plunges of two and one yard.

The Chargers' defensive unit played a strong game, intercepting two passes that set up a touchdown and a field goal and checking the Bengals with 195 yards total offense.

Brown paid tribute to Garrison, the former San Diego State star who caught five passes for 121 yards.

"We weren't surprised by his ability—he's in the same category as Alworth," Brown said. He was referring to flanker Lance Alworth, an all-league performer who played decoy most of the day, catching only one pass for 11 yards.

Cincinnati showed its best form moving 66 yards in the first quarter before the drive stalled and Dale Livingston booted a 21-yard field goal. The 3-0 lead was short-lived and the Bengals last advantage of the game.

Hadl's two touchdown passes and a 21-yard field goal by Dennis Partee gave the Chargers 17 second half points.

The stubborn Bengals made it close when linebacker Sherrill Headrick stole a Hadl pass on San Diego's 29. Seven plays later Essex Johnson, in his only carry of the day, swept six yards around right end for a touchdown and the Bengals trailed 17-10 midway through the third period.

But a Cincinnati drive late in the same quarter died on San Diego's 33 and Livingston missed a field goal.

The Chargers iced the decision when Bob Howard's interception of a Dewey Warren toss set up Hadl's first TD run. The winners added a second fourth quarter score when Hadl bucked over from the one after directing a nine-play, 52-yard march.

Rams Slam Browns, 24-6, At Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—George Allen summed it up: We had Cleveland on the ropes for the whole ball game.

The 82,514 at Cleveland Municipal Stadium Sunday couldn't argue with that, although the Los Angeles Rams' coach added:

"But we had a hard time knocking them out."

The knockout in the Rams' 24-6 National Football League victory came in the fourth quarter when Los Angeles got untracked and scored two touchdowns to put it away.

It was only a matter of time when you consider:

—The Browns had a total of six first downs.

—They never ran a play from scrimmage on the Rams' side of the 50-yard line.

Cleveland's touchdown was a 53-yard pass from Frank Ryan to Paul Warfield in the last two minutes of the first half. Don Cockroft's extra point was blocked and the Rams led 10-6, but it was all they needed.

Rams' defensive end Dave Jones explains why.

"We forced them to keep their five interior linemen and two running backs in to block against us," Jones said. "This meant they only had three possible receivers. But we had seven men back to cover them."

"That's a good situation, seven against three."

It took the Rams three minutes to take their first quarter lead. A Cleveland fumble and a Rams' interception did it. Maxie Baughman grabbed a Ryan pass and Bruce Gossett booted a 22-yard field goal. Cleveland fumbled the next kickoff and Tommy Mason scored from the six-yard line with 2:58 left in the quarter, the first of his two touchdowns.

High Scores Mark Ohio College Grid Games

By TOM GARDNER
Associated Press Writer

Saturday was a day of one-sided scores and outstanding individual performances in Ohio college football. The high scores generally were a result of the star player's efforts.

Among the major teams in action, Ohio State trounced Southern Methodist 35-14, Miami shut out Western Michigan 28-0, Ohio University bombed Kent State 31-7 and Toledo rolled over Marshall 35-12.

In games involving smaller schools Bethany smashed Case Tech 69-14, Wooster beat Swarthmore 37-0, Wittenberg belted Capital 41-8, Baldwin-Wallace ran past Wisconsin-Milwaukee 48-8 and Ashland beat Otterbein 42-12.

Performance honors in the OSU game went to sophomore quarterback Rex Kern, who fired two touchdown passes and ran for a third. SMU quarterback Chuck Hixson put on a good show too, completing 37 of 69 passes for 417 yards to set three SMU records.

The star of a close game between Cincinnati and Xavier was UC end Jim O'Brien, whose 40-yard field goal in the last quarter broke a 14-14 deadlock and gave the Bearcats a 17-14 victory.

In the Mid-American Conference, Ohio University tailback Bob Houmard and Miami's Cleveland Dickerson and Kent Thompson spelled victories for their squads.

Houmard scored three times for the Bobcats as they won their second straight MAC game. Dickerson and Thompson accounted for all four Red-skin touchdowns, scoring twice apiece.

Toledo extended its winning streak to 12 in beating Marshall. But its longest string of victories in major college football goes on the line next Saturday when the Rockets meet powerhouse Ohio U. The two squads shared the MAC championship last season.

Bethany's Ernie Whitted scored four of his team's 10 touchdowns as the Bisons piled up 500 yards against Case. Baldwin-Wallace amassed 676 yards against Wisconsin of Milwaukee with halfback Pete Baumgartner accounting for 183 yards and three touchdowns.

Ashland's Dave Gray scored 20 points against Otterbein as the Eagles picked up their 15th straight win. Ed Thompson picked up 122 yards and two touchdowns to lead Wooster's attack on Swarthmore and John Carroll quarterback Dan Renahan scored twice in the 30-8 effort against Washington & Jefferson.

The Ohio Conference season opened with eight of the 14 OC teams seeing action.

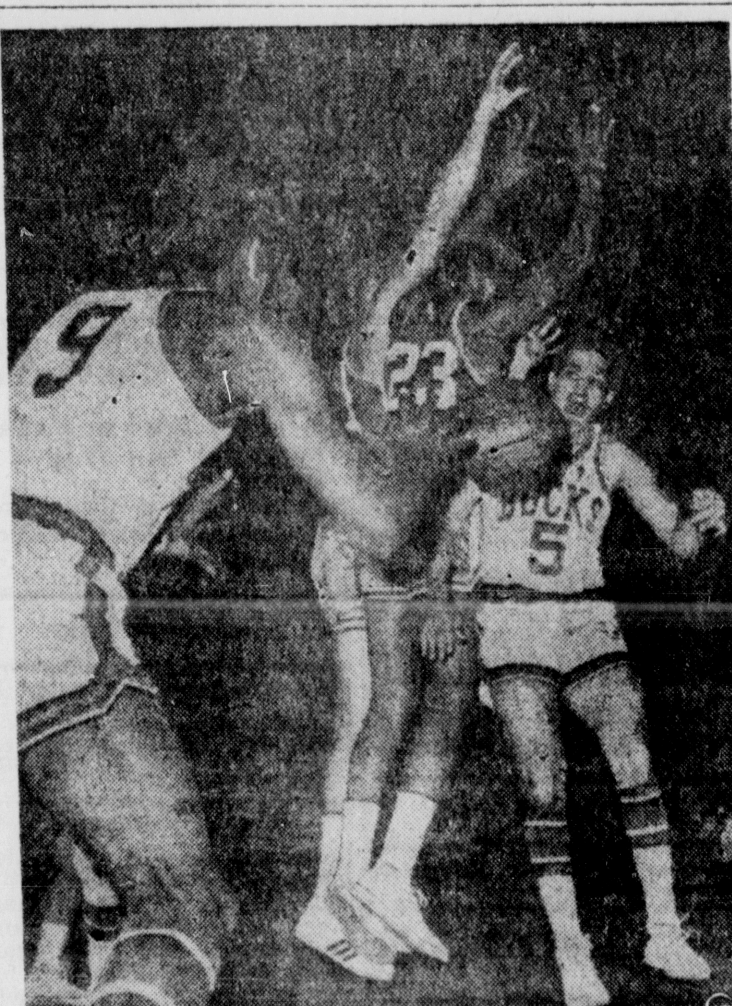

Wittenberg fullback Bill Noble scored twice and picked up 157 yards rushing against Capital. Mount Union intercepted five Kenyon passes while rolling over the Lords 21-8. Marietta beat Muskingum for the first time since 1937, 7-0, and a pair of touchdown passes from Dan Duffey to Steve Hicks in the fourth quarter carried Oberlin past Hiram 20-17.

Bowling Green continued its mastery over Dayton, winning its 11th straight game with the Flyers 20-14. Quarterback P.J. Nyitray passed for one touchdown and ran for another.

Denison halfback Scott Trumbull scored on a pass from Eric Schults and both men scored on short runs as the Big Red beat Washington of St. Louis 21-12. Findlay edged Central State 13-6, piling up nearly 200 yards in the first half.

Wilmington held Earlham to a 7-7 tie, but other Ohio teams did not fare so well against out-of-state foes.

Westminster (Pa.) bounced Heidelberg 21-7, Alma (Mich.) downed Defiance 21-15, Allegheny (Pa.) blanked Adelbert 16-0, Tampa (Fla.) rolled over Akron 24-9, Waynesburg (Pa.) shut out Ohio Northern 19-0 and Grand Rapids (Mich.) beat Bluffton 21-6.

WHAT? ALREADY?—Yep, it's basketball, even if it is an exhibition. The Cincy Royals and the Milwaukee Bucks are having a go at it in Milwaukee. They're in NBA.

Purdue Sees Tough Slate Ahead

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

With second-ranked Notre Dame out of the way, Purdue figures it still has to win a few more bowl games before it gets to the Rose Bowl and the national championship of college football.

Yaz Wins AL Batting Title

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Boston star Carl Yastrzemski left the park with the dubious distinction of winning a major league batting title with a record low average. Oakland Manager Bob Kennedy left the park without a job.

Both developments occurred Sunday as the American League closed its regular season.

Yastrzemski went 0-for-5 in Boston's 4-3 loss to the New York Yankees and unofficially won his third American League batting championship with a .301 average. The previous low was .306 by Elmer Flick of Cleveland in 1905.

Kennedy, who guided the Athletics to an 82-80 record, their best since 1955, watched his team drop out of a fifth-place tie with the Yankees by losing 4-3 to Minnesota, then was fired.

Owner Charles Finley named Hank Bauer, fired earlier in the season by Baltimore to replace Kennedy.

In other on-the-field developments in the American League Sunday, Washington edged pennant-winning Detroit 3-2 and the Chicago White Sox nipped California 7-6. Baltimore and Cleveland ended the season last Friday.

Boston could have used some hitting from Yastrzemski, who entered the game at .303 with a chance to climb to or above .306. The loss dropped the Red Sox into fourth place behind Cleveland.

New York gained its victory and first first-division finish since they won the pennant in 1964 with a three-run eighth-inning rally sparked by Bill Robinson's two-run double.

Washington tied Detroit on Frank Coggins' two-out, two-run single in the fourth and then won it in the ninth when Gory Holman scored from third as second baseman Dick McAuliffe bobbled pinch hitter Ed Stroud's grounder.

Oakland lost its chance to finish in a fifth-place tie when Minnesota's Rich Rollins, with two strikes against him and two men out, drove in the winning run with a bunt single in the eighth inning.

The run was the third of the inning for the Twins, who also scored in the third on Frank Quilici's first major league homer. Reggie Jackson hit a two-run homer for Oakland.

A three-run burst in the ninth inning gave Chicago a 7-5 lead over California and enabled the White Sox to finish in an eighth-place tie with the Angels. The ninth-inning runs came on pinch-hitter Leon Wagner's single, Gerry McNertney's pinch double and Bill Melton's sacrifice fly.

ball. "We've still got Ohio State and Minnesota and I think those two teams are comparable to Notre Dame," said Boilermakers' All-American Leroy Keyes when asked if No. 1 Purdue's 37-22 victory over Notre Dame Saturday meant the national title.

Keyes' cautious optimism probably is based on the memory of last year when Purdue also beat the powerful Irish, only to lose to Oregon State and Indiana and finish ninth and watched the Rose Bowl on television.

Along with Minnesota, ranked 17th before a 17-14 loss to ninth-

Snagged Passes Kill Jets, 37-35

By BOB GREEN
Most professional quarterbacks, when they've passed for four touchdowns and 280 yards, figure they've had a pretty good day.

But don't talk to Joe Namath about it.

The New York Jets' signal-caller also had five intercepted, with three of them run back 198 yards for touchdowns in the Jets' 37-35 upset defeat by Buffalo Sunday.

It was New York's first loss, dropping the Jets into a share of first place in the American Football League's Eastern Division with Boston, and the first victory in four starts for Buffalo.

"Those interceptions murdered us," Namath said. "I'm the one to blame for 'em. This dumb guy sitting here. I just wasn't reacting properly."

In other AFL games Sunday, San Diego and Oakland remained tied at the top of the Western Division with 3-0 marks, San Diego beating Cincinnati 31-10 and Oakland taking Houston 24-15, while Boston edged Denver 20-17. Kansas City trampled Miami 48-3 Saturday night.

Tom Janik made the longest run with the steal of a Namath pass, 100 yards in the second period. But Joe came back for a 55-yard touchdown toss to Don Maynard to give the Jets a 21-20 halftime margin.

Bruce Alford kicked a field goal, shortly after the half for a 23-21 Buffalo lead, and the Bills put it out of reach with Butch Byrd returning an interception 53 yards and Booker Edgerson another 45 yards for fourth period touchdowns and a 37-21 lead. New York made it close only on Namath's third touchdown pass to Sauer in the closing seconds.

Agnew In Flying Trip To Toledo

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Spiro T. Agnew is today's top visiting national candidate on the busy Ohio political scene.

The Republican vice presidential candidate was scheduled to arrive here at 11:30 a.m. for a rally and speech before flying on to Chicago.

On Wednesday, George C. Wallace brings his American Independent Party campaign for the presidency to the state, with scheduled stops in Akron, Canton, Alliance and Youngstown.

Sen. Edmund Muskie, Democratic candidate for vice president, wound up an Ohio campaign trip Saturday with an appearance in Columbus.

With second-ranked Notre Dame out of the way, Purdue figures it still has to win a few more poll bowls before it gets to the Rose Bowl and the national championship of college football. "We've still got Ohio State and Minnesota and I think those two teams are comparable to Notre Dame," said Boilermakers' All-American Leroy Keyes when asked if No. 1 Purdue's 37-22 victory over Notre Dame Saturday meant the national title.

Keyes' cautions optimism probably is based on the memory of last year when Purdue also beat the powerful Irish, only to lose to Oregon State and Indiana and finish ninth and watched the Rose Bowl on television.

Along with Minnesota, ranked 17th before a 17-14 loss to ninth-ranked Nebraska, and 11th-rated Ohio State, the Boilermakers also have Indiana and Michigan State, no softies.

Purdue, 2-0, is expected to have a tune up Saturday against Northwestern before the battle with Ohio State, which crushed SMU 34-14.

Southern California, No. 3 and likely to replace Notre Dame in the runnerup spot after a 24-7 victory over Northwestern, will be waiting for Purdue to slip, but the Trojans expect trouble of their own.

Southern Cal must entertain rugged Miami, Fla., which probably improved its No. 15 ranking with a 10-7 triumph over always tough Georgia Tech. That might be the only clash between top 20 teams this weekend after three of them last Saturday.

Joining Notre Dame and Minnesota among the fallen was 13th-ranked Indiana, which fell to Kansas, No. 12, 38-20. Texas, No. 6, and Wyoming, No. 20, were the other losers as the Longhorns were upset by Texas Tech 31-22, and the Cowboys dropped before Air Force 10-3.

The rest of the Top Ten got by—barely, at times—as Penn State, No. 4, overcame Kansas State 25-9; Florida, No. 5, nudged Florida State 9-3; Alabama, No. 7, struggled past Southern Mississippi 17-14, and UCLA, No. 8, bounced Washington State 31-21. Houston, No. 10, was idle.

Alabama and UCLA, with USC, are likely to have the most difficult time staying unbeaten this weekend with games against Mississippi and Syracuse, respectively.

Bauer Is Signed To Manage A's

OAKLAND (AP) — No baseball manager has ever pleased seasons but Hank Bauer is getting a second chance.

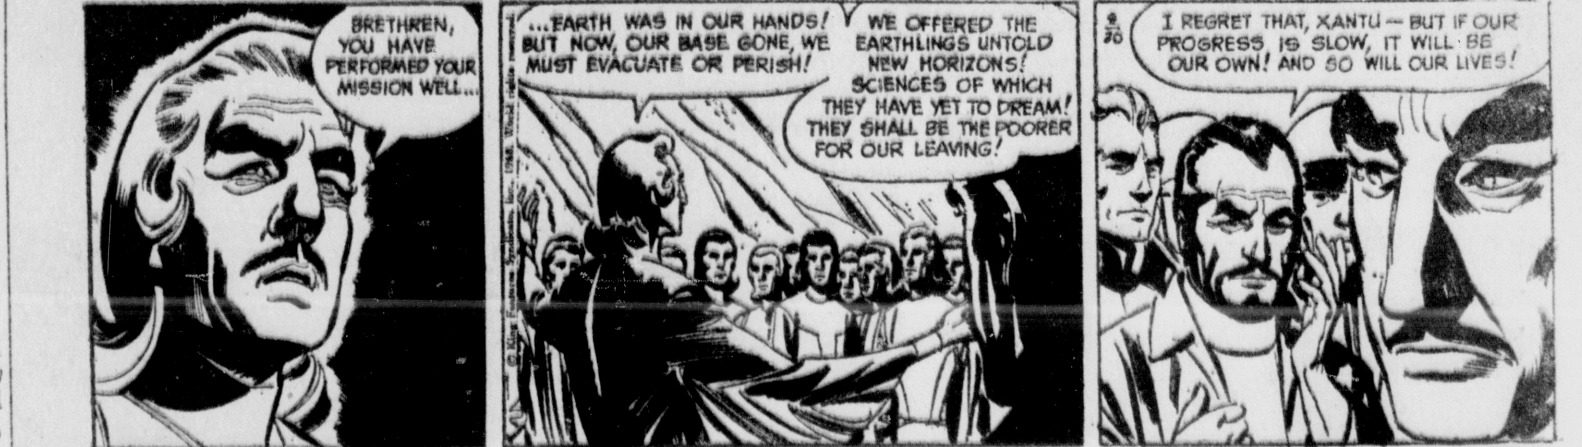

Bauer, fired as manager of the Baltimore Orioles early this season, has signed a two-year contract to manage the Athletics.

He replaces Bob Kennedy, who also had signed a two-year contract but was fired Sunday only minutes after Oakland had concluded its best American League season since 1952 by compiling an 82-80 record.

Orient History Tied To Rail, State Institute

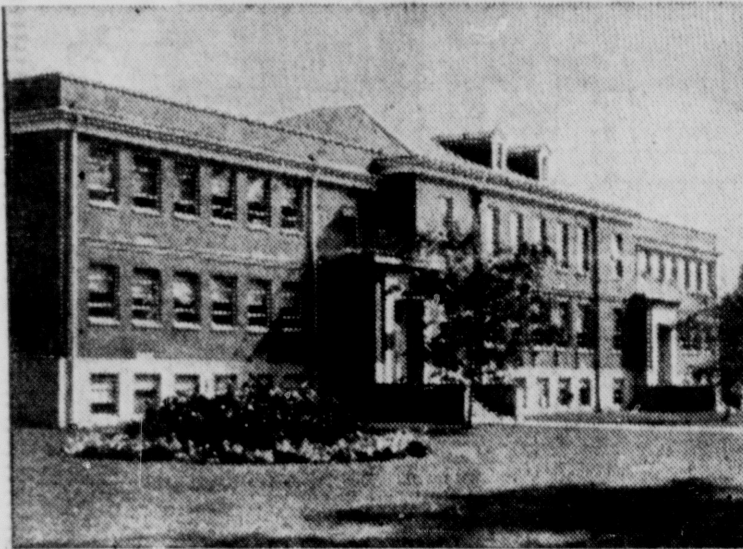

History of the village of Orient is the history of the railway and the state institute. The village, located in northern Scioto Twp. and originally called Morgan, was an early settlement for workers on the railroad and was later a railhead and repair station. The state institute, which today employs most of Orient, was established there in 1898.

VILLAGE CHURCH — The picturesque United Methodist Church serves the 360-population village of Orient situated on a bluff overlooking Darby Creek.

STATE INSTITUTE — Orient State Institute was established in 1898 as a branch of Columbus State School. In 1926 the institute became an independent institution. The administration building above was one of the earlier buildings constructed on the 1800 acre tract of land used by the institute.

INSTITUTE SCHOOL — The institute endeavors to be a self-sufficient community. The school above provides education for 170 children at the institute. In addition to the school there is a 150-bed hospital, farms, doctors, dentists, entertainment, repair shops, greenhouse, barber and other facilities necessary to a community.

Wallace Goes To Chicago For Motorcade, Speeches

CHICAGO (AP) — George C. Wallace pointed his presidential campaign at the North this week, aiming at industrial states and Democratic and Republican voters.

Advancemen for the American Independent party candidate arranged a noon-hour motorcade today in this Democratic stronghold and an evening speech in Cicero, an all-white working class suburb where he is popular.

The route for the procession was one mile of State Street, Chicago's main shopping area. The time and the downtown district long have been favored by visiting politicians because thousands of lunch-hour workers and shoppers are on the streets anyway.

Richard M. Nixon, the Republican presidential nominee, was seen by 400,000 persons, by police estimate, in the downtown area early this month.

Wallace, former governor of Alabama, planned to make a speech at Albright Field in Cicero, a southwestern suburb of 71,000.

An open-housing march there on Sept. 4, 1966, drew police, National Guardsmen and crowds of brick and bottle hurlers.

Cicero officials first denied then granted Wallace a permit to speak there. However, they denied him use of City Hall property and limited his parade route.

The State Street route—from Wacker Drive to Van Buren Street—comes within three-quarters of a mile of the section of Grant Park where demonstrators clashed with police and National Guardsmen during last month's Democratic National Convention.

Business Briefs

Winners of prizes awarded during the initial showing of 1969 model Pontiacs at Christopher Pontiac, E. Main St., were announced today.

They are: first, Barbara J. Tufts; second, Marguerite P. Jones; and third, Sue Engle.

City Firemen Called

The Circleville Fire Department was called to two fires Saturday afternoon.

At 3:20 p.m. a car owned by Ronnie Young, 115 W. Main St., backfired through the carburetor, setting the engine on fire and causing $100 loss before firemen arrived to douse the blaze.

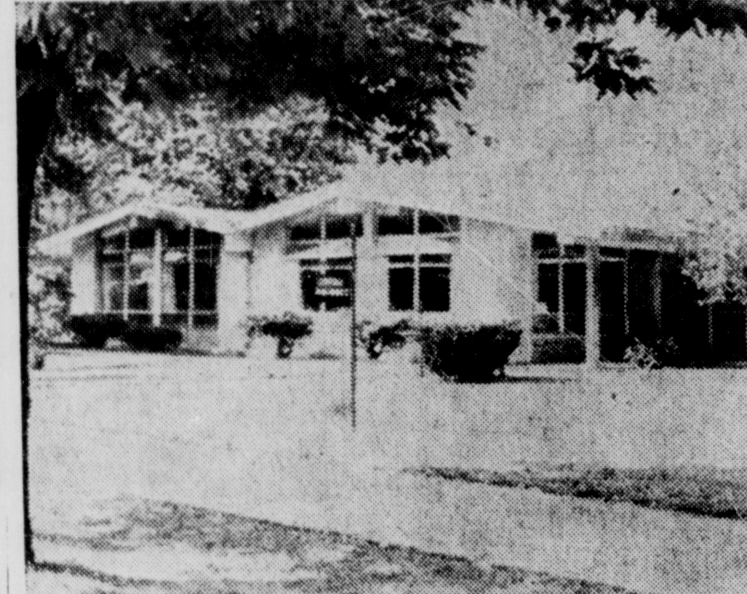

At 6:15 p.m., Dorothy Smith, 214 E. Mill St., called firemen when her clothes dryer developed an electrical short. Firemen reported no loss.

ORIENT POSTOFFICE — The Orient postoffice provides pick-up service for village residents and has two rural routes. A new building is under construction for the postoffice. This residential village is governed by a mayor and council. Mayor of Orient is James Sealock. Council members are Marie Crawford, Jesse Wilson, Archie Brown, Karl Engel, Earl Ridgeway and Richard Rush. Clerk-secretary is George Keil.

COTTAGE HOUSING — The institute attempts to provide a stable environment for the feeble minded people resident here. Part of this program is carried out through the use of cottage housing, small groups of people living together under the direction of a trained supervisor. The attempt to provide a complete protected community is carried on throughout the institute.

FOOD SERVICE — Among the more recent of the 150 buildings at the institute is the central food service building. The building provides food for the 3500 patients and 900-member staff at the institute.

Newsprint Price Hiked $5 Per Ton

Major producers in the United States and Canada have announced an increase of $5 a ton in the price of newsprint. The increase is effective Jan. 1, 1969.

The upcoming increase is the third newsprint hike since June of 1966.

One of the producers joining in the price increase is Abitibi Papers of Canada, which supplies newsprint for The Circleville Herald.

Orient History Tied To Rail, State Institute

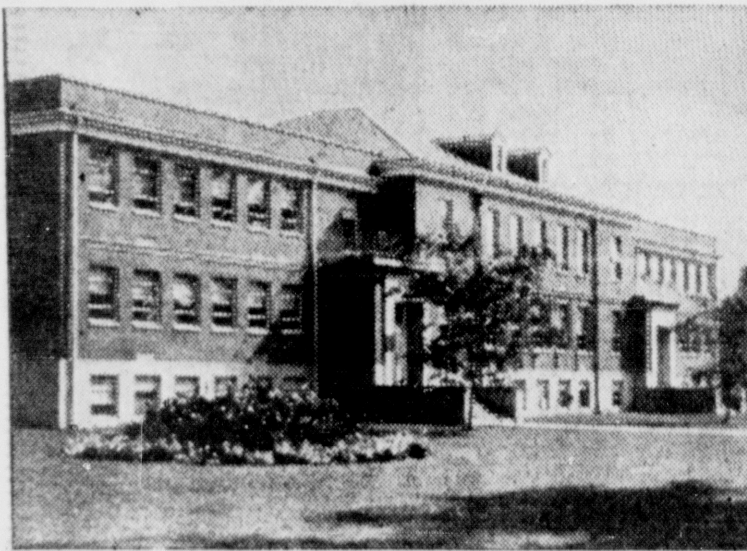

History of the village of Orient is the history of the railway and the state institute. The village, located in northern Scioto Twp. and originally called Morgan, was an early settlement for workers on the railroad and was later a railhead and repair station. The state institute, which today employs most of Orient, was established there in 1898.

VILLAGE CHURCH — The picturesque United Methodist Church serves the 360-population village of Orient situated on a bluff overlooking Darby Creek.

STATE INSTITUTE — Orient State Institute was established in 1898 as a branch of Columbus State School. In 1926 the institute became an independent institution. The administration building above was one of the earlier buildings constructed on the 1800 acre tract of land used by the institute.

INSTITUTE SCHOOL — The institute endeavors to be a self-sufficient community. The school above provides education for 170 children at the institute. In addition to the school there is a 150-bed hospital, farms, doctors, dentists, entertainment, repair shops, greenhouse, barber and other facilities necessary to a community.

Wallace Goes To Chicago For Motorcade, Speeches

CHICAGO (AP) — George C. Wallace pointed his presidential campaign at the North this week, aiming at industrial states and Democratic and Republican voters.

Advancement for the American Independent party candidate arranged a noon-hour motorcade today in this Democratic stronghold and an evening speech in Cicero, an all-white working class suburb where he is popular.

The route for the procession was one mile of State Street, Chicago's main shopping area. The time and the downtown district long have been favored by visiting politicians because thousands of lunch-hour workers and shoppers are on the streets anyway.

Richard M. Nixon, the Republican presidential nominee, was seen by 400,000 persons, by police estimate, in the downtown area early this month.

Wallace, former governor of Alabama, planned to make a speech at Albright Field in Cicero, a southwestern suburb of 71,000.

An open-house march there on Sept. 4, 1966, drew police, National Guardsmen and crowds of brick and bottle hurlers.

Cicero officials first denied then granted Wallace a permit to sneak there. However, they denied him use of City Hall

Business Briefs

Winners of prizes awarded during the initial showing of 1969 model Pontiacs at Christopher Pontiac, E. Main St., were announced today. They are: first, Barbara J. Tufts; second, Marguerite P. Jones; and third, Sue Engle.

City Firemen Called

The Circleville Fire Department was called to two fires Saturday afternoon.

At 3:20 p.m. a car owned by Ronnie Young, 115 W. Main St., backfired through the carburetor, setting the engine on fire and causing $100 loss before firemen arrived to douse the blaze.

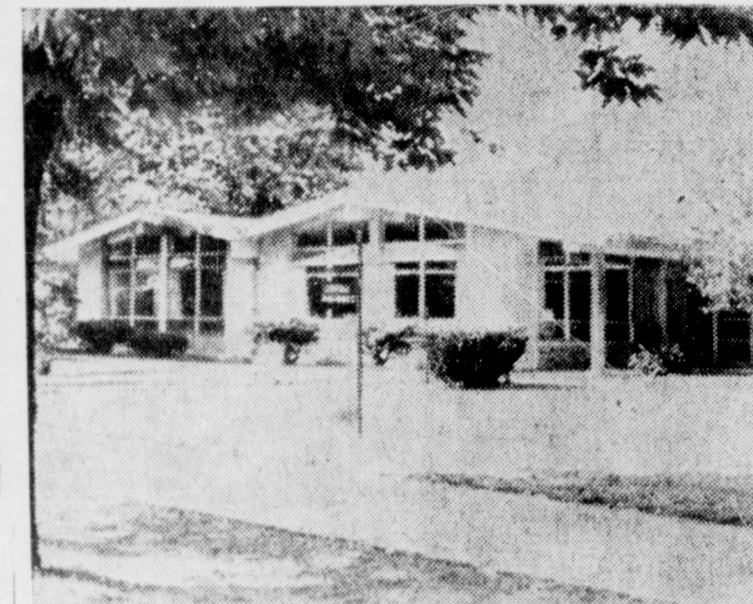

At 6:15 p.m., Dorothy Smith, 214 E. Mill St., called firemen when her clothes dryer developed an electrical short. Firemen reported no loss.

ORIENT POSTOFFICE — The Orient postoffice provides pick-up service for village residents and has two rural routes. A new building is under construction for the postoffice. This residential village is governed by a mayor and council. Mayor of Orient is James Sealock. Council members are Marie Crawford, Jesse Wilson, Archie Brown, Karl Engel, Earl Ridgeway and Richard Rush. Clerk-secretary is George Keil.

COTTAGE HOUSING — The institute attempts to provide a stable environment for the feeble minded people resident here. Part of this program is carried out through the use of cottage housing, small groups of people living together under the direction of a trained supervisor. The attempt to provide a complete protected community is carried on throughout the institute.

FOOD SERVICE — Among the more recent of the 150 buildings at the institute is the central food service building. The building provides food for the 3500 patients and 900-member staff at the institute.

Newsprint Price Hiked $5 Per Ton

Major producers in the United States and Canada have announced an increase of $5 a ton in the price of newsprint. The increase is effective Jan. 1, 1969.

The upcoming increase is the third newsprint hike since June of 1966.

One of the producers joining in the price increase is Abitibi Papers of Canada, which supplies newsprint for The Circleville Herald.

Jackets Stolen

Dan Spiers, Orient, told Circleville police that two jackets were taken from his car between 11:45 p.m. and midnight Saturday.

He said his auto was parked on W. Main St. when the theft occurred.

New Holland Forms C OF C

A newly-formed Chamber of Commerce now exists in the village of New Holland. The main purpose of the organization is the advancement of the village and surrounding area commercially, industrially and agriculturally.

Bob Lewis, a realtor, was named temporary chairman of the group. A constitution and bylaws were adopted and an organizational meeting set for Monday.

Elected president of the C of C was Josef Louis, a farmer; proprietor of the White Cottage Restaurant, Joseph Gordon, was named vice president; and William Davidson, manager and secretary of the First National Bank of New Holland, secretary-treasurer.

Other members of the board are Lincoln Schwart, mayor and an Armo employee; Ivan Heyer, Hobby Shop proprietor; Earl Arnold, Marathon Oil Co. distributor; and Joseph Bryan, farmer and president of the bank.

At today's meeting, key committees will be appointed and the organization's program and objectives will be established.
